Catalogue of Rare and Important Books Broadslides, and Autograph Letters Relating to America

A SUPERB COPY IN THE ORIGINAL BINDING

- 1 ACOSTA, JOSEPH. The Naturall and Morall Historie of the East and West Indies...Written in Spanish by Joseph Acosta, and translated into English by E. G [rimstone]. Small 4to, original limp vellum, in half green levant slip case. London: Printed by Val: Sims for Edward Blount and William Aspley, 1604. $350.00

FIRST EDITION. A MAGNIFICENT COPY IN THE ORIGINAL BINDING, with the rare blanks at beginning and end necessary to complete the sheets; probably the finest in existence. A very important work which has been translated into almost every language of Europe.

- 2 ACRELIUS, ISRAEL. Beskrifning om de Swenska Församlingars Forna och Närwarande Tilstånd, uti det så kallade Nya Sverige, sedan Nya Nederland, men nu för tiden Pennsylvanien, samt nästliggande Orter wid-Alfwen De la Ware, Wäst-Yersey och New-Castle County uti Nort America. 4to, old half calf. Stockholm, 1759. $38.00

FINE COPY. One of the best sources of information for the historian of Pennsylvania, New Sweden and the New Netherlands. The Brinley copy sold in 1880 for $80.00 and the Week's copy, $39.00.

- 3 ACT for Incorporating the Society for the Relief of Poor, Aged and Infirm Masters of Ships, their Widows and Children in Philadelphia. Passed Feb. 24, 1770. Quarto, pp. 1-8. [Phila., 1770.] $60.00

Not mentioned by Hildeburn or Evans, and believed to be UNIQUE. One of the earliest societies in America for the relief of sailors.

- 4 ADAMS, JOHN QUINCY. Correspondence between John Quincy Adams, Esquire .. and several Citizens of Massachusetts, concerning the Charge of a Design to Dissolve the Union. .. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. Boston: 1829. $2.50

RARE JOURNALS OF THE ALABAMA TERRITORY

- 5 ALABAMA. Journal of the Legislative Council of the Alabama Territory at the First Session of the First General Assembly, 1818. 12mo. St. Stephens: Printed by Thomas Eastin, Printer to the Alabama Territory, 1818. Pp. 1-56; I-IV. $160.00

- 6 ALABAMA. Journal of the House of Representatives of the Alabama Territory at the First Session of the General Assembly, 1818. 12mo. St. Stephens: Printed by Thomas Eastin, 1818. Pp. 1-180; I-IV. $160.00

These are among the rarest legal nuggets ever offered for sale. They perhaps exist in some Southern library, perhaps at Montgomery, but we cannot trace other examples of them.

7 ALGERIA. A short Account of Algiers and of its several Wars. . . With a Concise View of the Origin of the Rupture between Algiers and the United States. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. Philadelphia, 1794. $3.50

8 ALLEN, COLONEL ETHAN. A Narrative of Colonel Ethan Allen's Captivity. With notes. 12mo, original printed boards. Burlington: Goodrich, 1846. $2.50

The best edition of this important book and now very scarce.

9 ALLEN, JOHN. The American Alarm, or the Bostonian Plea for the Rights and Liberties of the People. . . By the British Bostonian. [John Allen]. 8vo, unbound, uncut. Boston, 1773. $37.50

A very rare revolutionary pamphlet.

- 65 ALMANAC. The Farmer's Almanack, 1809. 12mo, unbound, uncut. By Robert B. Thomas. Boston: Printed for John West & Co. $2.50
See also FRANKLIN AND NEWPORT.
- 66 AMERICAN MAGAZINE and Monthly Chronicle for the British Colonies. Volume I. Containing from October, 1757, to October, 1758, inclusive. By a Society of Gentlemen. WOODCUT OF INDIAN BEING CONVERTED AT HEAD OF EACH PART. 8vo, half sheep. Philadelphia: William Bradford, [1758]. $87.50
 Very rare. Contains much material relating to the FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR AND THE INDIANS. Each part bears the autograph of Jasper Yeates. This is a complete copy, as no more were issued after the first volume. It was edited by William Smith.
- 67 AMHERST, GENERAL JEFFREY. A. L. S. Six miles below Albany [1759]. Interesting letter mentioning Sir William Johnson. To Col. Bradstreet. Quarto, 1 page. $26.50
- 68 ANDERSON, JOHN E., and HOBBY, WILLIAM J. The Contract for the PURCHASE OF WESTERN TERRITORY, made with the Legislature of Georgia, in the Year 1795, considered with a Reference to subsequent Attempts of the State, to impair its Obligation. 4to, half calf, joint cracked. Augusta: Randolph & Bunce, 1799. $37.50

A pamphlet of the most provoking rarity! We have tried to find it for many years, and finally unearthed it with other scarce Georgia pieces.

BOOKS RELATING TO THE UNFORTUNATE ANDRE

- 69 ANDRE, JOHN. Proceedings of a Board of Gen. Officers, held by order of His Excellency Gen. Washington, . . . respecting Major John Andre, adjutant-general of the British Army. Sept. 29, 1780. 8vo, red morocco gilt back and sides, by Pawson and Nicholson. Philadelphia: 1780. $275.00

FIRST EDITION. A superb copy of the most important of the Revolutionary Military Trials. There were editions published in Providence, New York, Hartford, Dublin, etc., but the Philadelphia is the first and official edition. This is one of the most attractive "exhibits" in an American library and particularly seductive to the collector of material relating to the Revolution.

- 70 ANDRE, JOHN. The Life and Career of Major John Andre, Adjutant-General of the British Army in America. By Winthrop Sargent. 8vo, polished calf, uncut, t. e. g. by Pratt. Boston: Ticknor and Fields, 1861. $30.00
Large paper copy, only seventy-five copies printed.

- 71 ANDRE, JOHN. Minutes of a Court of Inquiry upon the case of Major John Andre, with accompanying Documents, published in 1780 by Order of Congress. With an Additional Appendix. Portrait. 4to, calf, uncut. Albany: 1865. $7.50

- 72 ANDRE, JOHN. Monody on Major Andre. By Miss Seward. To which are added Letters addressed to Her by Major Andre, in the year 1769. [EXTRA ILLUSTRATED BY THE INSERTION OF MANY RARE ENGRAVINGS OF WASHINGTON, CORNWALLIS, MISS SEWARD and MAJOR ANDRE. 4to, panelled calf extra, g. e. by Rivière. Lichfield: 1781. $65.00

- 73 ANDRE, JOHN. Andre. A Tragedy, in Five Acts, as now Performing at the Theatre in New York, to which is added The Cow-Chase, a satirical Poem by Major Andre, with the Proceedings of the Court Martial and Authentic Documents concerning him. 8vo, interleaved with 4to sheets, half calf. London, 1799. $22.50
Very scarce. The tragedy was written by William Dunlap.

- 74 ANDRE, JOHN—Smith, Joshua Hett. An Authentic Narrative of the Causes which led to the Death of Major Andre, adjutant-general of his Majesty's Forces in North America. To which is added a Monody on the Death of Major Andre. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. London: Mathews and Leigh, 1808. $25.00

With a brilliant impression of the fine portrait.

- 75 [ANDREWS, WILLIAM LORING]. Eulogy on Thomas Crawford. By Thomas Hicks. PLATES. 8vo, unbound, uncut. New York: Privately Printed for subscribers, 1865. $6.50

Only 70 copies printed in octavo. The earliest of Mr. Andrews' series of privately printed books.
Presentation copy.

- 76 ANDREWS, WILLIAM LORING. Fragments of American History. ILLUSTRATED SOLELY BY THE WORKS OF THOSE OF OUR OWN ENGRAVERS WHO FLOURISHED IN THE XVIIIITH CENTURY. 12mo, half blue morocco, gilt top, uncut. New York: Privately Printed for William Loring Andrews, 1898. $15.00

One of 80 copies on American hand-made paper.

- 77 ANNAPOLIS. Annals of Annapolis, comprising Sundry Notices of that Old City from the period of The First Settlements in its Vicinity in the Year 1649, until the War of 1812. Together with various Incidents in the History of Maryland. Compiled and edited by David Ridgely. FRONTISPIECE. 12mo, original cloth. Baltimore: Cushing & Brother, 1841. $6.00

Very scarce.

- 78 APESS, WILLIAM (an Indian). Eulogy on King Philip as Pronounced at the Odeon . . Second Edition. FRONTISPIECE. 8vo, half roan. Boston: 1837. $5.00

- 79 APIANUS, PETRUS. Cosmographia Petri Apiani, per Gemma Frisium apud Iovanienses medicum et mathematicum insignem . . NUMEROUS CURIOUS WOODCUTS, MAPS AND ASTRONOMICAL DIAGRAM, WITH VOLVELLES AND MOVABLE PIECES. Small 4to, vellum. Coloniae Agrippinae. 1574. $27.50

JAMES MADISON'S COPY

- 80 APLIN, JOHN. Verses on Doctor Mayhew's Book of Observations on the Charter and Conduct of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. By a Gentleman of Rhode Island Colony. 8vo, sewed, uncut. Providence in New England: William Goddard, 1763. $65.00

President Madison's copy, with his signature on title. A very rare Rhode Island imprint, and an important contribution to American verse.

BENEDICT ARNOLD WANTS HALF PAY FOR HIS "SERVICES" IN AMERICA

- 81 ARNOLD, BENEDICT (The Traitor). A. L. S. 2 pp., 4to, with an autograph copy made by him of a letter from Sir Henry Clinton, 1 p., 4to. Together 3 pp., 4to. Bryanston Street (London), 6th June, 1783. $115.00

A very rare autograph letter, written while in England, on army matters.

"I take the liberty of Inclosing a copy of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to B. Genl. De Lancey . . in consequence of which B. General Skinner and myself waited on the Secretary of War this morning, who informed us that he did not know if the Cabinet had come to any resolution on the Subject . . I understand from the Secretary at War that Genl. Conway approves the Motion for half pay, and that he will give it his assent." etc.

- 82 ARNOLD, BENEDICT. A Representation of the Figures exhibited and paraded through the Streets of Philadelphia, on Saturday, the 30th of September, 1780. Broadside. [Philadelphia: 1780.] Enclosed in a half red morocco slip case. $135.00

An original impression of this famous broadside with the large wood engraving showing Arnold carried through the streets of Philadelphia in effigy and about to be burned at the stake. This is one of the most interesting and most important Revolutionary publications. It is extremely rare—we know of but one other copy of the original.

- 33 ARSCOTT, ALEXANDER. Some Considerations Relating to the Present State of the Christian Religion. . . . Part III, 12mo, original sheep. Philadelphia: Printed by Andrew Bradford, at the Sign of the Bible. 1738. $70.00

Fine and crisp copy. The appendix is devoted largely to George Keith's controversy with Cotton Mather, the Quakers of Pennsylvania, etc. WE ARE UNABLE TO TRACE ANY PREVIOUS SALE OF THIS BOOK. It is a CONTINUATION OF THE TWO PARTS PUBLISHED BY BENJAMIN FRANKLIN SIX YEARS BEFORE (IN 1732) AND THIS THIRD PART WAS ISSUED BY BRADFORD TO COMPLETE THE FRANKLIN EDITION.

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT AND RAREST AMERICAN DOCUMENTS

- 84 ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION and Perpetual Union between the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. Folio, original blue paper wrappers, uncut, in a green morocco slip case. Lancaster [Pennsylvania]: Printed by Francis Bailey, 1777. $650.00

Judging from its importance and unquestioned rarity, this pamphlet, published in the city of Lancaster, where Congress had removed after the capture of Philadelphia, should be worth five thousand dollars. But alas! collectors are so much interested to-day in Swinburne pamphlets (one sold recently for $1450.00 at auction), Lewis Carroll, Dowson, Beardsley and other ephemeral junk that the first edition of this great WORLD DOCUMENT has been neglected. With the exception of the Brinley, it was not in any of the great collections, including the Menzies, Rice, Ives, Barlow, Pennypacker, Weeks, etc., and was missing in the great Americana library of Dwight Church.

ARTICLES OF THE MOST FAMOUS INDUSTRIAL GUILD IN AMERICA

- 84a. ARTICLES OF THE CARPENTERS' COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA and their Rules for Measuring and Valuing House-Carpenter's Work. FRONTISPIECE AND 36 COPPER PLATES. 8vo, original sheep. Philadelphia: Hall and Sellers, 1786. $160.00

UNKNOWN TO EVANS AND OTHER BIBLIOGRAPHERS, AND NO COPY RECORDED IN AUCTION PRICES. This is one of the most valuable industrial books published in America, containing thirty-six copperplates engraved in Philadelphia. The Carpenters Company was the most famous commercial organization in the colonies, having been founded in 1724. Its building was the finest of its kind and the Continental Congress met there in 1774. The engravings, by an unknown artist, represent building constructions, interior woodwork, etc., etc.

- 85 ASHMUN, J. History of the American colony in Liberia, from December 1821 to 1823. Compiled from the authentic records of the colony. MAP. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. Washington City: Way and Gideon, 1826. $4.00

- 86 ATHERTON, WILLIAM. Narrative of the Suffering and Defeat of the North-Western Army under General Winchester; Massacre of the Prisoners, Sixteen Months' Imprisonment of the Writer and Others with the Indians and British. 16mo, original boards, white paper label. Frankford, Ky.: Printed for the Author, 1842. $8.50

A fine copy of this valuable account of the services of Kentucky in the War of 1812, and a RARE INDIAN CAPTIVITY. Copies have sold for higher prices at auction.

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN OF AN AMERICAN SATIRE PRINTED BY ISAIAH THOMAS AND ONE OF THE EARLIEST PRODUCTIONS OF HIS PRESS

- 87 ATTICUS. The Trial of Atticus before Justice Beau for a Rape. [Quotation from Dryden's Juvenal.] 8vo, half red levant morocco. Boston: Printed and Sold by ISAIAH THOMAS, near the Wall and Bridge, for the Author, 1771. $365.00

This scathing political and social satire dealing with the people of Massachusetts is ENTIRELY UNKNOWN. It is in the form of a DIALOGUE and may be considered an important contribution to the EARLY DRAMA IN AMERICA. It has been known from advertisements that Isaiah Thomas printed a volume like the above, but this seems to be the only copy that has been preserved. It is not listed in Evans. It is one of the earliest known examples from the press of one of the great American printers, and this book was printed by Thomas during the first year he was in business, at his new office "near the Mill-Bridge." The author of this biting satire, with a fine discretion, preferred to remain unknown!

- 88 AUBERTEUIL, HILLIARD D'. Essais Historiques et Politiques sur les Anglo-Américains. PORTRAITS and MAPS. 2 vols., 8vo, old mottled calf, gilt. A Bruxelles, 1781. $100.00

A superb copy of this excessively rare work. It is from the library of Sir John Sinclair and contains his autograph on the fly leaf. It also contains magnificent impressions of the beautiful portraits, engraved on copper of George Washington, by Le Roy (Baker, No. 151); John Hancock, by Pelicier; Benjamin Franklin, by Pelicier, etc. Among the rare views are: "The Burning of New York," and "The First Meeting of Congress." There are many Maps and Plans, including one not mentioned in other copies: "Plan de la Bataille de Monmouth."

UNKNOWN AMERICAN PAMPHLETS ON AVIATION

- 89 AVIATION. The Forty-fifth Aerial Flight of the universally celebrated Mr. Blanchard, at Philadelphia. 12mo, unbound, uncut, in half levant morocco slip case. N. p., n. d. [1788]. $87.50

VERY RARE. An eight-page pamphlet, three pages being occupied by an account of Mr. Blanchard, two pages by doggerel verse eulogizing him, title and two blank pages. We cannot trace another copy, and it is probably unique.

- 90 AVIATION. The Great Steam-Duck: or a concise description of a most useful and extraordinary invention for Aerial Navigation. By a Member of the L. L. B. B. FRON-TISPIECE. 12mo, original wrappers, in half morocco case. Louisville: Printed by order of the Louisville Literary Brass Band, 1841. $110.00

The frontispiece shows the extraordinary invention in full flight.
THE EARLIEST BOOK PUBLISHED IN THE WEST ON AVIATION.

- 91 BACON, JAMES. The American Indian; or, Virtues of Nature. A Play in Three Acts with Notes. Founded on an Indian Tale. 8vo, half calf, gilt top. London, 1795. $18.50

The American Indian from the time of Pocahontas has figured extensively in the drama and he is always pictured therein either as a melancholy saint or a villanous murderer. I would like to be present when a real Indian views a performance of this character; his language would not be fit for publication, but his thoughts would make the most fascinating reading. If any authors are contemplating writing such a play, let them peruse some of the authentic works in this catalogue and instead of a lying, ridiculous caricature, they would produce (provided they have the genius!) a drama of standard worth and value. All literary people, however, are politely requested to pay cash in advance.

A WONDERFUL COLLECTION RELATING TO NATHANIEL BACON'S REBELLION

- 92 BACON, NATHANIEL. An important volume containing documents relating to Bacon, "The Virginia Rebel," as follows:

1. The original proclamation by Governor Sir William Berkeley against Nathaniel Bacon and his associates in the Rebellion of 1676, 2 pages, folio, August 30, 1676, signed by Governor Berkeley.

An extremely interesting historical document.

2. Document signed by the Duke of Monmouth, 1 page, folio, October 26, 1676.

An order in relation to an expedition to Virginia to suppress the Rebellion of Nathaniel Bacon.

The famous Duke of Monmouth, natural son of Charles II, was executed for rebellion against James II, his autograph is rare.

3. Document signed by Governor Sir William Berkeley, 1 page, folio, November 9, 1676.

A proclamation relating to Bacon's Rebellion.

4. A. L. S. of Andrew Marvell, the Poet, 1 page 4to, undated.

Very closely written and extremely interesting letter giving an account of some of the events of Bacon's Rebellion. Autograph letters of Marvell are very rare.

Bound in a folio volume, with a contemporary map of Virginia and portrait of the Duke of Monmouth and Andrew Marvell, dark blue levant, by Rivière. $2650.00

- 93 BARBE-MARBOIS. Complot D'Arnold et de Sir Henry Clinton Contre Les Etats-Unis d'Amerique et contre le General Washington . . 8vo, original wrappers, with original paper label, uncut. Paris: 1816. $20.00

- 104 BEATTY, CHARLES. The Journal of a Two-Months' Tour with a view of Promoting Religion Among the Frontier Inhabitants of Pennsylvania and of Introducing Christianity among the Indians to the Westward of the Allegheny Mountains. To which are added Remarks on the Language and Customs of some particular Tribes of Indians. 8vo, half morocco. London: 1768. $30.00
The rare first edition. This is one of the most accurate accounts of the Indians, the author having for years lived among them, and this Journal remains to-day as one of the best narratives on the Tribes west of the Alleghenies.

BEAUREGARD'S REPORT OF THE BATTLES OF BULL RUN, MANASSAS AND SHILOH

- 105 BEAUREGARD, PIERRE GUSTAVE TOUTANT, General. His own Manuscript Copy, signed, of the Report on the Battle of Bull Run. Head Quarters, 1st Corps, Army of the Potomac, Manassas, Aug. 25, 1861. 25 pages, 4to. Neatly written.

*Report of the Battle of Manassas (Second Bull Run). His own Manuscript Copy, signed. 70 pages, 4to. Neatly written.

*Report of the Battle of Shiloh. His own Manuscript, signed. Head Quarters, Army of the Mississippi, Corinth, Miss., April 11, 1862. 22 pages, 4to.

The three reports bound in one volume, with a neatly written title. On the fly leaf General Beauregard has written in pencil:

"N. O. November 25, 1865. To be returned by Genl. Rt. E. Lee whenever no longer required. G. T. Beauregard."
$1100.00

"The First Battle of Bull Run was fought on July 21, 1861. The Battle of Manassas or Second Bull Run was fought August 28-30, 1862, and the Battle of Shiloh was fought April 6 and 7, 1862, and these three battles were the most important of the first years of the War, and their results instilled the Southern heart with hope of final victory for their cause, but the prestige of this victory of the Southland only stimulated the North to greater efforts, and history tells how fruitless were these early victories. Probably no other battles of the Civil War have caused more controversy, and no other battles are fresher in the minds of living participants, but gradually the tangle is being undone, and with undoubted evidence, like the papers in this collection, errors of history are being corrected, and we are able, with malice toward none, to let our hearts swell with pride for the numerous deeds of unheard-of bravery, exhibited by the gallant soldiers who wore the Blue and Gray. It was at the Battle of Bull Run where Genl. Thos. J. Jackson won the title of "Stonewall" given by the lamented Genl. Barnard E. Bee, who gave up his life on that memorable field, and who called upon his wavering lines to look at General Jackson and his men, "they stand like a stone wall." This infused his men with fresh valour, and immortalized the name of "Stonewall" Jackson. Of the Battle of Shiloh, we never had, on the Northern side, but a garbled report, for some reason that of Genl. Grant's was never published, and the papers relating to that affair, on the Northern side, were accidentally (?) consumed by fire in the War Department. Consequently, this report of Genl. Beauregard's is about all we have from the Commanding Officer of the Confederate Army on that affair, as it is quite probable the original report sent to the Confederate Government at Richmond was destroyed at the time of the fall of that City."—Stan. V. Henkels.

- 106 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Manuscript Copy of Genl. G. T. Beauregard's Report on the Battle of Manassas (Bull Run), July 21, 1861. 73 pages, folio. $10.00

BEAUREGARD'S NOTED "BEAUTY AND BOOTY"
PROCLAMATION MENTIONING
ABRAHAM LINCOLN

- 107 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. D. S. 2 pages, 4to (1861).
"A Proclamation to the good people of the Counties of Alexandria, Loudoun, Fairfax and Prince William." Signed by Beauregard as Brig.-Genl. Commanding. $185.00

"A reckless and unprincipled tyrant has invaded your soil. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, regardless of all moral, legal and constitutional restraints has thrown his abolition hosts among you, who are murdering and imprisoning your citizens—confiscating and destroying your property and committing other acts of violence and outrage too shocking and revolting to humanity to be enumerated. All rules of civilized warfare are abandoned and they proclaim by their acts, if not on their banners, that their war cry is, "Beauty and Booty." All that is dear to man,—your honor and that of your wives and daughters—your fortunes and your lives are involved in this momentous contest," etc.

This is a superb Civil War Document.

- 108 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Broadside. Printed Address of Genl. Beauregard to the Army of the Mississippi, Jackson, Tenn., March 5, 1862. 8vo. $5.00

Giving notice of his taking command of the Army of the Mississippi.

ORDER OF THE BATTLE OF SHILOH

- 109 BEAUREGARD'S ORDER of the Battle of Shiloh. Original Manuscript of Special Order No. 8. Head Quarters, Army of the Mississippi, Corinth, Miss., April 3, 1862. Signed by Brig.-Genl. Thos. Jordan as A. Adj't Genl. of Genl. Beauregard's Staff. $87.50

This highly important document gives the order of what was one of the most important battles in the war, and where the brave Genl. Albert Sidney Johnston lost his life, a mishap, which no doubt lost to the Confederacy their greatest opportunity during the war, of defeating Genl. Grant, who was nigh the verge of surrendering when the great mishap occurred.

- 110 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. A. L. S. 4to, in pencil. Corinth, May 2, 1862. To Genl. B. Bragg. $5.00

"I send you herewith enclosed a letter from Genl. S. Jones in which he thinks we have been rather too harsh upon him. After reflecting on the subject, I think the lesson has been sufficiently strong & that we ought now to remove any sting which may remain behind, for he is a meritorious officer, has done good service & is susceptible of rendering still more good service to the country, hence I have drawn up the substance of a letter herewith which I think you might address to him."

ON THE ATTACK ON NEW ORLEANS

- 111 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. A. L. S. 2 pages, 4to. Bladen, Ala., Aug. 2, 1862. To Col. Jno. M. Hecger. $70.00

Referring to the proposed attack on New Orleans.

"I feel highly flattered by your proposition, for there is no position however honorable & elevated, I would prefer, to the one referred to by you, of being able to lead on 'to victory or to Death' the gallant sons of my own native Louisiana, in their patriotic endeavour to drive back from her sacred soil, the polluting feet of the Abolition hordes of the North. But in the first place my health unfits me at present for such an arduous & responsible position, admitting that I am otherwise qualified for it & in the second place, so long as the Enemy has command of the River with his Gun Boats, the recovery of New Orleans must depend upon our taking St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Washington & Baltimore, which, I think can be done before long, by a proper combination of our still latent forces & resources, meanwhile, a proper organization of our State forces can Keep the Enemy within the limits of the five points he now holds, no exertion should be spared to attain that desirable end & I have no doubt, that General Van Dorn will soon be able to afford great assistance in so doing. 'Nil desperandi' is my motto, & I feel confident that ere long, the glorious Sun of Southern Liberty will appear more radiant than ever from the clouds which obscure temporarily its brilliant disk."

- 112 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Autograph Draft of a Military Telegram, signed in pencil. Near Petersburg, July 7, 1864. To Genl. R. E. Lee. $7.50

Suggesting a stratagem to discover the strength of the enemy.

- 113 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Printed General Order No. 1. Head Qr's Military Division of the West, Jacksonville, Ala., Oct. 17, 1864, issued by Genl. Beauregard. $5.00

Giving notice of his assuming command of the Military Division of the West.

- 116 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Autograph Draft of a Military Telegram in pencil, signed with initials. Small 4to, Pocotaligo, S. C., Dec. 20, 1864. To President Davis. $14.00

"General Hardee reports to-day from Hardeeville that Evacuation of Savannah as instructed by me was successfully accomplished last night, all the light Artillery & most of the stores & ammunition were brought off, the heavy guns were spiked & otherwise disabled; Line of defence behind Combahee river will be taken soon as possible."

- 117 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Autograph Draft, signed in pencil, of a Military Telegram. 4to, Mobile, Jan. 20, 1865. To President Davis. $7.50

Relative to the plans of the enemy.

"Present appearance indicate following early plans of Campaign on part of the Enemy,—Thomas from Middle Tenn. will move via Eastport, Tusculumbia or Decatar into North Ala, on Selma or Montgomery.—Canby will move via Pascagoula, Mobile or Pensacola to form a junction with Thomas. They will then probably march on Columbus & Macon. Genl. Taylor will have (to oppose these two Armies) only Stewart's Corps about 5,000 men, Mobile Garrison about same, Forrest & other troops about 10,000 more. Unless Kirby Smith is compelled to reinforce Taylor, or to attack St. Louis, or New Orleans, it will be impossible to defend successfully the States of Miss. & Ala."

- 118 BEAUREGARD, P. G. T. Autograph Draft of a Military Telegram in pencil, signed. 8vo. Meridian, Miss., Jan. 20, 1865. To Genl. Hardee, at Charleston. $7.50

- 139 BEVERIDGE, JOHN. Epistolæ Familiares et Alia Quædam Miscellanea, Familiar Epistles and Other Miscellaneous Pieces. Written originally in Latin Verse by John Beveridge. . . . To which are added several translations in the English Verse, &c. . . . 12mo, half green morocco. Philadelphia: Printed for the author by William Bradford, 1765. $30.00

A necessary item for every collection of early American poetry.

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN OF THE FIRST BIBLE PRINTED IN AMERICA

- 140 THE HOLY BIBLE, containing the OLD and NEW TESTAMENTS: Newly Translated out of the Original Tongues: And with the Former Translations Diligently Compared and Revised, By His Majesty's Special Command. Appointed to be read in Churches. LONDON. (Boston.) Printed by Mark Baskett, Printer to the King's most Excellent Majesty; and by the Assigns of Robert Baskett. 4to, in the original sheep binding. M.DCC.LII. (1752). $2,500.00

THE ONLY KNOWN COPY OF THE ORIGINAL ISSUE OF THE FIRST BIBLE EVER PRINTED IN AMERICA IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, and the FOUNDATION STONE FOR ALL COLLECTIONS OF AMERICAN BIBLES. The reasons for making so strong a statement as the above, can, here, be only briefly summarized.

ISAIAH THOMAS, in his "HISTORY OF PRINTING IN AMERICA," states that KNEELAND & GREEN, Boston Printers, issued from their press for DANIEL HENCHMAN and other booksellers, a small quarto BIBLE, and that he was informed of this by those who had assisted in the printing. He gives the date as "about the time that the partnership of KNEELAND & GREEN expired," which was 1752, and QUOTES THE IMPRINT, WHICH CORRESPONDS WITH THAT OF THE COPY HERE DESCRIBED. He states that it was carried through the press AS PRIVATELY AS POSSIBLE, and BORE THE LONDON IMPRINT so as "to prevent a prosecution from those in England and Scotland who published the BIBLE by a patent from the crown, or cum privilegio, as did the Universities of OXFORD and CAMBRIDGE."

The AUTHORIZED imprint was: "OXFORD: PRINTING BY THOMAS BASKETT, PRINTER TO THE UNIVERSITY, 1752."

It is evident that when the Boston printers put forth this Bible THEY DARED NOT COPY THE AUTHORIZED IMPRINT, as the piracy would be apparent and the consequences disastrous, and so selected the, almost identical, name of MARK BASKETT, a London printer of established repute, as a cloak for their designs.

This is the McKee copy, the only one known, which brought $2025 at auction in 1902.

THE RARE AITKEN BIBLE

- 141 BIBLE, THE HOLY BIBLE. Containing the Old and New Testaments. Newly translated out of the Original Tongues and with the former translations diligently compared and revised. 12mo, original calf, morocco solander

BORNE'S VERY RARE "REGIMENT FOR THE SEA"

- 154 BORNE, WILLIAM. A Regiment for the Sea, Containing verie necessarie matters for all sorts of men and trauailers, whereunto is added an Hydrographically discourse touching the five severall passages to Cattay. Written by William Borne. New, corrected and amended by Thomas Hood, who hath added a new Regiment, and Table of declination. Woodcut of Galleon on title, which is rubricated. Black letter. 4to, vellum covers. Imprinted at London by T. Est for Thomas Wight, 1592. $250.00

This very interesting book is of great rarity. We cannot trace the sale of another copy. It gives the various routes to America, and is one of the earliest books in English that relate to the Northwest Passage. He speaks of the various attempts that had been made to find this famous route, particularly of "Captain Forbisher, who hath begun to enter into, and hath discovered it as far as a place now called Meta Incognita, which he himselfe did call Forbisher's Straights," etc. He adds, "It is possible that there may be a passage thereabout, betweene the Norther part of America, as betweene Labrador and Gronland, and such lands as lye toward the North Pole." This precious volume is a desirable item in any collection of Americana. It is in the best possible condition.

- 155 BOSSU, M. Travels through that part of North America called Louisiana. Translated from the French by J. R. Forster. BRADFORD IMPRINTS

- 169 BRADFORD IMPRINT. An Account of our Sincere Faith in the most necessary things of Christian Doctrine. . . . Given forth by some of us in behalf of many Brethren who are in scorn called Quakers in Pennsylvania, &c. (Etc.) (Signed) George Keith, Thomas Budd, John Hart, (Et Al.) 8 pp., 8vo, morocco. (Philadelphia: William Bradford, 1692.) $550.00

This is usually found appended to "Some Reasons and Causes of the late Separation . . . at Philadelphia," the second tract on the Keithian Schism. See Hildeburn, Vol. 1, pp. 24-5.

- 170 BRADFORD IMPRINT. To the Honourable William Keith, Esq., Lieut. Governor of the Counties of New Castle, Kent and Sussex upon the Delaware and the Province of Pennsylvania. The Humble Address of the Representatives of the said Counties in General Assembly met at New-Castle the 13th Day of June, 1717. Pp. 4, folio, full red levant morocco, uncut, by Zaehnsdorf. (Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford, 1717.) Hildeburn, 146. $450.00

An exceptional copy of a very rare tract. It is a petition of the inhabitants of Pennsylvania and Delaware, praying that their titles to the land be confirmed and not granted to others.

ONE OF THE RAREST MARYLAND TRACTS

- 171 BRADFORD IMPRINT. The | Case | of | Isaac Taylor and Elisha Gatchel, | Two Officers of Pennsylvania, made Prisoners by the Government | of Maryland. | (Colophon.) Pp. 2, folio, half calf. Hildeburn, No. 196. Printed at Philadelphia (by Andrew Bradford), in the year 1723. $680.00

Excessively rare. Fine copy, printed by Andrew Bradford. This is one of the Cases growing out of the Boundary Line dispute between the Penns and Lord Baltimore. Isaac Taylor was arrested for surveying Land for the Proprietors, on a tract claimed by Lord Baltimore, and Elisha Gatchel went to his assistance and was also arrested.

- 172 BRADFORD IMPRINT. The Antidote. In some Remarks on a Paper of David Lloyd's, called A Vindication of the Legislative Power, Submitted to the Representatives of all the Freemen of Pennsylvania. Folio, half calf. Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford, 1725. $500.00

Written by James Logan. A caustic rebuke to David Lloyd for his actions in relation to the rights of the Proprietor of Pennsylvania. Very rare. The Second edition with the Advertisement and Errata.

- 173 BRADFORD IMPRINT. The Honest Man's Interest as he claims any Lands in the Counties of New Castle, Kent, or Sussex, on Delaware. Pp. 4, folio, full red levant morocco, uncut, by Zaehnsdorf. (Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford, 1726.) Hildeburn, No. 274. $585.00

A copy of a Bradford tract, dated 1726, the same as the above, and not so rare brought £140 in the Huth Sale (lot 5764).

- 174 BRADFORD IMPRINT. Remarks on the late Proceedings of some Members of Assembly at Philadelphia, April, 1728. Folio, half calf. Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford, 1728. $575.00

Very rare. The remarks were caused by Eight Members of the House of Representatives leaving the Assembly before Adjournment, one being Sir Wm. Keith, who had sent in his resignation, the others not agreeing with the majority after voting with them, left the Assembly on some flimsy plea, which the writer claims was for the purpose of breaking the House. The cause of the trouble was the Rival Claims of Sir Wm. Keith and Col. Patrick Gordon for the position as Deputy-Governor.

PRINTED BY BRADFORD

- 175 BRADFORD IMPRINT. BRAINERD, DAVID. Mirabilia Dei inter Indicos, or the Rise and Progress of a Remarkable Work of Grace amongst a Number of the Indians in the Provinces of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. 8vo, cloth, uncut, in cloth box, worn at corners. Philadelphia: Printed by William Bradford, [1746]. $75.00

The very rare first edition. Not in Field, and other celebrated collections of Americana. This is one of the famous books on the Indians and has been considered for years a "classic" by students and scholars.

FOUR AUTOGRAPH LETTERS RELATING TO THE ABUSE OF PASSPORTS

- 188 BUCHANAN, JAMES, A. L. S. 1 p., 4to, Washington, 1st April, 1845, to Hon. Geo. M. Dallas. Reluctantly granting a request that Dr. Meigs be appointed a special despatch bearer to Europe.

" . . Similar applications . . are made to the department daily, and all have been rejected, because the regular system established of communicating with Europe is perfect without the agency of bearers of despatches. But you have made the request and it shall be granted." . . etc.

DALLAS, GEORGE M. A. L. (copy) 1 p., 4to, 3rd April, 1845, to (President) Buchanan, withdrawing the request. . . "Dr. Meigs is unwilling in the slightest degree to interrupt . . (the practice of the department) . . and has, therefore, directed me to withdraw the request." . . etc.

BUCHANAN, JAMES. A. L. S. 1 p., 4to, Washington, 8th April, 1845, to Mr. Dallas in which he forces the favor on Dr. Meigs.

"I . . now have the pleasure of transmitting the passport for Dr. Meigs. . . Notwithstanding your letter, I hope he may accept it." . . etc.

BUCHANAN, JAMES. A. L. S. 1½ pp., 4to, Washington, 9th April, '45, to Mr. Dallas relating to the abuse of passports and urging Dallas to have Dr. Meigs accept the one he sent.

. . "I can assure you that one of the greatest abuses in a small matter which has existed in the Department of State is the facility with which passports have been granted to bearers of despatches when there were no despatches to carry . . Nevertheless, I have sent to Dr. Meigs such a passport . . and I intend to make him bearer in fact as well as in form." . . etc. $67.50

- 189 BULKELEY, JOHN and CUMMINS, JOHN. A Voyage to the South Seas in the years 1740-1. Containing a faithful Narrative of the Loss of his Majesty's Ship the WAGER on a desolate Island in Latitude 47 South, Longitude 81:40 West . . 12mo, half morocco, uncut. Philadelphia: James Chattrin, 1757. $25.00
Unique in this uncut condition.

- 190 BULLOCK, W. Sketch of a Journey through the Western States of North America, from New Orleans, by the Mississippi, Ohio, City of Cincinnati and Falls of Niagara, to New York, in 1827. With a Description of Cincinnati by B. Drake and E. D. Mansfield. (TWO FOLDING MAPS.) 12mo, half calf. London: 1827. $40.00

Bullock's interesting narrative is followed by a reprint of "Cincinnati in 1826," with a separate title page. One of the rarest of the Western narratives.

A CONTEMPORARY PLAN OF THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL

- 191 BUNKER'S HILL. A Plan of the Battle of Bunker's Hill, Fought on the 17th of June, 1775. By an Officer on the Spot. With a "Description of the Action . . . taken from a Letter written by General Burgoyne." Size, 23 x 18½ inches. London: Sayer & Bennett, 1775. $175.00
Excessively rare.
- 192 BURDER, GEORGE. THE WELCH INDIANS; or, a collection of Papers, respecting a People whose Ancestors emigrated from Wales to America, in the year 1170, with Prince Madoc, (Three Hundred years before the First Voyage of Columbus.) 8vo, half green calf by Sangorski & Sutcliffe. - 195 BURK, JOHN. History of Virginia. By J. Burk, I. Jones and L. H. Girardin. 4 volumes, 8vo, original calf. Petersburg, 1804-1816. $65.00
A good copy in the original binding. In accordance with the trite and hackneyed traditions of the bookseller, we must refer to the rarity of the fourth volume, remarking that "a large portion of the edition was destroyed by fire." Although over thirty-five copies containing the fourth volume have been sold at auction, members of the tribe of bookmen will continue to refer to it with the customary gradations from "extremely scarce" to "superlatively rare." The book is, of course, extremely common and always met with on a bibliographical tour, but nevertheless it is a work of great value to the scholar and historian. The last copy sold at auction brought $115.00.
- 196 BURK, JOHN DALY. Some Materials to serve for a brief Memoir of John Daly Burk With a Sketch of the Life and Character of Judge John Junius Burk. Edited by Charles Campbell. 8vo, original cloth. Albany, Joel Munsell, 1868. $3.00

ABOUT THE WOMEN OF NEW ORLEANS

- 203 BUTLER, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, General. Printed General Order No. 44. Head Quarters, Western Department, Corinth, Miss., May 19, 1862, issued by Genl. G. T.

Beauregard, embracing a copy of Genl. Butler's Notorious Order No. 28. $65.00

"Head Quarters Department of the Gulf, New Orleans, May 15, 1862. General Order No. 28.

As the officers and soldiers of the United States have been subject to repeated insults from the women (calling themselves ladies) of New Orleans, in return for the most scrupulous non-interference and courtesy on our part, it is ordered that hereafter when any female shall, by word, gesture, or movement, insult or show contempt for any officer or soldier of the United States, she shall be regarded and held liable to be treated as a woman of the town plying her avocation. By Command of Major General Butler. George C. Strong, A. A. G. Chief of Staff."

Beauregard printed this for the information of the Army, and ordered it to be read on dress parade. His address to the Army, is as follows:

"Men of the South! shall our mothers, our wives, our daughters and our sisters, be thus outraged by the ruffianly soldier of the North, to whom is given the right to treat, at their pleasure, the ladies of the South as common harlots? Arouse friends, and drive back from our soil, these infamous invaders of our homes and disturbers of our family ties." This copy is signed in the Autograph of Col. Jno. M. Otey of Beauregard's Staff.

BOOKS RELATING TO CALIFORNIA

- 205 CALIFORNIA. Articles of Association of the Philadelphia and California Mining Company, TOGETHER WITH THE BY-LAWS, LEASE, MAP, ETC. 8vo, original paper covers. Phila., 1852. $18.00

These mining prospectuses with the invaluable maps are of the highest historical importance. All of them are excessively rare as most found their way into the waste-basket. It was only the unlucky director of the company or a more unlucky investor (not being on the "inside") who preserved them as a memento of a sad experience and who unconsciously performed the greatest service to the student of history.

- 206 CALIFORNIA. Quartz Mining. The Burns Rancho Gold Mining Company, Township No. 2, Mariposa County, in California. An Account of its Location, Title, Mineral Riches, etc. With its Charter and Proceedings, Letters, Certificates, and other Matters relating to it, etc. 8vo, original paper covers. New York, 1851. $26.00

You can appreciate the rarity of this important California item if you start on a search to find it!

EXTRAORDINARY TWINS"

- 255 CLEMENS, SAMUEL L. The original autograph Manuscript of "Those Extraordinary Twins," being the author's first draft and including the germ of "Pudd'nhead Wilson." Written in ink on 124 octavo pages. Mark Twain gives an entertaining account of writing these two stories in the preface or note to "Those Extraordinary Twins" which is always printed with "Pudd'nhead Wilson." He narrates that he wrote the story (the present UNPUBLISHED DRAFT) and finding as he went along two distinct plots he "pulled one of the stories out by the roots and left the other one—a kind of literary Cæsarian operation." This manuscript contains the two stories in an unpublished form. Enclosed in a morocco slip case. Price on application.

EARLY AMERICAN DRAMA

- 256 [CLIFTON, WILLIAM.] Paddy's Plot or the Old Fool Couzen'd at Last. In two Acts. 4to, original wrappers in half morocco slip case. [ca 1800.] $250.00

A manuscript play, apparently unpublished, 33 pages, by William Clifton, the Philadelphia poet who wrote "The Group," published in 1800. At the end is a two-page folio autograph letter of William Cobbett, unsigned and undated, inspiring the play.

"Tell your friend to exert all his comic talents describing an Irish or an English patriot . . . who has fled from justice, for attempting to exercise his revolutionary talents in his own country, just landed in America," etc.

- 269 THE COLUMBIAN NAVAL SONGSTER, being a Collection of Original Songs, Odes, etc., Composed in Honour of the Five Great Naval Victories obtained by Hull, Jones, Decatur, Bainbridge and Laurence. Compiled by E. Gillespy. 8vo, original boards, uncut. New York, 1813. $18.50
Very scarce.
- 270 COLUMBUS. Ivlii Cæsaris Stellæ Nobilis Romani COLVMBEIDOS Libri Priores Duo, Ad Phillippvm Avstrum I hilippi II. Regis Cath. F. Hispaniorum Indiarivm Principim. Small 4to, old calf. (1589.) $45.00
This work is so rare that it is unnoticed by all bibliographers, including Henry Harrisse. There was no copy in any of the great sales of Americana held during the last twenty years. It is an account of Columbus written in Latin verse.

- 271 CONFEDERATE IMPRINT. Three Months in the Southern States: April, June, 1863. By Lieut.-Col. Fre-mantle. 8vo, original paper covers, back cover missing and last leaf slightly defective. Mobile: S. H. Goetzel, 1864. $25.00

Fine copy of a rare Confederate Imprint. The covers are printed on the plain side of a piece of wall-paper. The author was a member of the famous Coldstream Guards, of Southern sympathies, and the book is a day-by-day record of his observations.

- 272 CONFEDERATE STATES. Statement relative to a conference held with President Davis at Fairfax C. H. about the end of September, 1861, relative to putting the Army of the Potomac in a condition to take the offensive. Written at Centreville, Va., Jan. 31, 1862, and Signed by Genl. Gustavus W. Smith, Genl. G. T. Beauregard and Genl. Joseph E. Johnston. 7 pages, 4to. $150.00

A highly important historical document, giving the reason why the Confederate Army was unable to follow up the victory at Bull Run, and pursue and attack the enemy in their own country, with a view to capturing Washington. The statement is that of Genl. Gustavus W. Smith, who in these pages gives his recollections of this occurrence, and before signing it Genl. Beauregard has written:

"My recollection of the above conference agrees fully with the statement of Genl. G. W. Smith," and which Genl. Jos. E. Johnston fully agrees by signing it also.

- 273 CONFEDERATE WAR ETCHINGS. A collection of 29 ETCHINGS ON INDIA PAPER laid down on heavier paper. 4to, half yellow morocco, gilt top. $65.00

A fine series of contemporary etchings, including "Return of a Raiding Party from Pennsylvania," "Stone Blockade off Charleston, S. C.," "Prayer in Stonewall Jackson's Camp," etc. These are the ORIGINAL IMPRESSIONS, not the reprints.

- 274 CONGRESS. In Provincial Congress. Watertown, June 17, 1775. Printed Broadside calling upon the people to be on their guard and prepared at all times to resist attacks. Signed, Samuel Freeman, Secretary. $12.00

- 275 CONGRESS. "Whereas a Report has been industriously propagated in this city (New York) that the Continental Congress had passed a Resolve that unless American Grievances were redressed by the first of March, these COLONIES SHOULD BE INDEPENDENT of Great Britain," etc., accusing Mr. Archer, formerly of Philadelphia, of having spread the news and that he ought to be considered "as an enemy to this country." Signed by Henry Remsen, Committee Chamber, New York, August 4, 1775. Quarto Broad-side. New York [Printed by John Holt], 1775. $60.00

This interesting and valuable Broadside exhibits—the fact that tory New York did not want the news spread of the approaching breach with England "as calculating to create Dissensions in the Colonies." Extremely rare.

- 276 CONGRESS. In Congress, April 3, 1776. Instructions to the Commanders of Private Ships or Vessels of War. Signed by John Jay, President. $25.00

Folio broadside.

THE ONLY COPY EVER OFFERED FOR SALE OF
THE FIRST PRINTING OF THE COMPLETED
CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

- 280a. CONSTITUTION. We the People of the United States, in order to Form a More Perfect Union, Establish Justice, provide for the Common Defence, etc., do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. The excessively rare special edition of the Pennsylvania Packet for Wednesday, September 19, 1787. Large Folio, 4 pp., entirely uncut. Philadelphia: Dunlap and Claypool, 1787. $1250.00

The most valuable issue of the Constitution of the United States PRINTED TWO DAYS AFTER ITS ADOPTION AND FROM THE PRESS OF THE OFFICIAL PRINTERS. Entirely unknown to Ford. Only a few copies have survived, and as this is the foundation of our government, it is probably the most important document connected with our history. The Constitution was passed in its present form on September 17, 1787, and so certified by George Washington, President, and William Jackson, Secretary. This issue, printed the following day, September 18 and distributed on September 19, was the FIRST NOTIFICATION OF THE CONSTITUTION TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

FIRST PUBLISHED EDITION OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

- 281 CONSTITUTION. Articles agreed upon by the Federal Convention of the United States of America, his Excellency George Washington, Esq., President .. In Convention (Philadelphia), Monday, September 17, 1787. Pp. 4, folio, enclosed in half red morocco portfolio. New York: Printed by J. McLean, No. 41, Hanover Square. $575.00

This is one of the most valuable examples of Americana and is of the highest degree of rarity, not more than five copies being known. It should be one of the corner-stones of any American library. If some of these atrocious New England religious tracts bring between two and three thousand dollars at auction there is no reason why this great historical document, which is equally as rare should not be worth as much.

- 282 CONSTITUTION. The Constitution proposed for the Government of the United States of America, by the Federal Convention, held at Philadelphia, in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-seven. 8vo, original wrappers, uncut, in half red levant case. Philadelphia: Printed by Hall and Sellers, 1787. $90.00

VERY RARE, in any condition, but in this fine uncut state practically unprocurable. The importance of this pamphlet is apparent.

- 283 CONSTITUTION. The Constitution of the United States, as recommended to Congress the 17th of September, 1787. By the Federal Convention. 8vo, unbound, uncut. Portsmouth, New Hampshire: John Melcher, 1787. $37.50

Great, King of Prussia, enclosing the DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE and ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION.

I.

PARIS, FEBRUARY 14th, 1777.

May it please Your Excellency

We have the honor of inclosing the DECLARATION of the INDEPENDENCE of the UNITED STATES or NORTH AMERICA, with the ARTICLES of CONFEDERATION; which we desire you to take the earliest Opportunity, of laying before his Majesty, The King of Prussia; at the same time we wish he may be assured, of the earnest desire, of the United States, to obtain his Friendship; & by a free Commerce, to establish an intercourse between their distant Countries, which they are confident must be mutually beneficial. The state of the Commerce of the United States, and the advantages which must result to both Countries, from the Establishment of a Commercial intercourse; we shall if agreeable to his Majesty, lay before him. Meantime we take the Liberty of assuring your Excellency that the Reports of the advantages gained by his Brittanic Majesty's Troops, over those of the United States are greatly exaggerated, and many of them without Foundation, especially those which assert that an accommodation is about to take place, there being no probability of such an Event, by the latest intelligence, we have received from America.

We have the honor to be with the most profound respect

Your Excellency's

Most Obedient &

Very Hum^{ble} Serv^{ts}

B. FRANKLIN

COMMISSIONERS PLENIPOTENTIARY
FOR THE UNITED STATES OF NORTH AMERICA.

II.

THE ORIGINAL DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, signed and attested by BENJAMIN FRANKLIN and SILAS DEANE, COMMISSIONERS PLENIPOTENTIARY, and sent to FREDERICK THE GREAT through the Prussian Minister, BARON DE SCOLENBERG.

THE ONLY OFFICIAL CERTIFIED COPY OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE EXTANT.

From Paris, on November 28, 1776, SILAS DEANE wrote to the committee on Secret Correspondence:

"Gentlemen:

Your favor of the 7th of August last enclosed the DECLARATION OF INDEPENDANCEY, with instructions to make it known to this and other Powers of Europe."

This, therefore is one of the identical copies ordered by the Continental Congress, to be sent abroad, in order that the Independence of America should be recognized. IT IS THE MOST PRECIOUS AMERICAN DOCUMENT EVER OFFERED FOR SALE.

III.

The original ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION OF THE UNITED STATES, signed and attested by BENJAMIN FRANKLIN and SILAS DEANE, COMMISSIONERS PLENIPOTENTIARY and sent to FREDERICK THE GREAT, through his minister BARON VON SCOLENBERG.

The only certified official copy of the ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION KNOWN.

As the ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION were not adopted until November 15, 1777, this is a unique draft, as it was sent to the King of Prussia, February 14, 1777, nearly nine months before its final adoption. It differs in many ways from the original at Washington and therefore it is of remarkable importance. It is also interesting to note that both papers are certified and signed by BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, who was part author of both documents and who was the leading spirit in their origin.

Price for the three documents, $160,000.00

NOTE:—Owing to their great value and being constantly under guard they will be shown to those interested only between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and five o'clock P. M.

HANCOCK'S NOTIFICATION, DATED JULY 6, 1776, OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

312 HANCOCK, JOHN. THE ORIGINAL OFFICIAL LETTER, SIGNED, OF JOHN HANCOCK, President of the Continental Congress, relating to the separation of the Colonies from Great Britain and asking that the Declaration of Independence be proclaimed to the people. Dated July 6th, 1776.

With a notation in the handwriting of Hancock, and signed by him.

2 pp., folio, enclosed in a handsome levant morocco portfolio. $3500.00

"Philadelphia, July 6, 1776

Gentlemen:—

Altho it is not possible to foresee the consequences of Human Actions, yet it is nevertheless a Duty we owe ourselves and Posterity in all public Councils to decide in the best manner we are able and to trust the Event to that Being who governs both Causes & Events, so as to bring about his own Determination.

Impressed with this Sentiment, and at the same time fully convinced that our Affairs may take a more favourable Turn, the Congress have judged it necessary to dissolve all Connection between Great Britain and the American Colonies, and to declare them free and independent States; as you will perceive by the enclosed Declaration which I am directed to transmit to you, and to request you will have it proclaimed in your Colony in the Way and Manner you shall think most proper.

The important Consequences to the American States from this Declaration of Independence, considered as the ground and Foundation of a future Government, will naturally suggest the propriety of having it proclaimed in such a manner, as that the People may be universally informed of it.

I have the Honour to be
Gentlemen

Your most obed^t. and very h^ble Serv.

JOHN HANCOCK, Presid^t.

AUTOGRAPH LETTERS OF MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO DRAW UP THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

- 313 [DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.] Jefferson, Thomas. President of the United States. Drafted and Signed the Declaration of Independence. A. L. S. folio. Annapolis, May 7, 1784. To Governor Harrison, with franked address. VERY FINE.

"Since my letter of this morning the post has arrived and brought us a letter from Dr. Franklin of Mar. 9. he had received a letter from Congress informing him of the reasons delaying over ratification, he apprehends no difficulties from this circumstance, & the rather as he had received a letter from Mr. Hartley dated Mar. 2 (the day before the exchange should have taken place) desiring him he would inform him when the American ratification should arrive, & he could then apply for the British & attend the exchange, letters this moment received from Holland inform us that the protested bills will be taken up, but by pushing plan of loan on terms most ruinous & disgraceful, yet less so than non-payment could have been, this shows the necessity of doing something effectual in the business of supplies."

Franklin, Benjamin. Signer of the Declaration of Independence. A. L. S. folio. Philadelphia, Oct. 1, 1785. To Thos. Jefferson. EXCEPTIONALLY FINE IN REFERENCE TO HOUDON VISITING WASHINGTON FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING A MARBLE BUST.

"I wrote you by a former opportunity, to acquaint you with our safe arrival. Mr. Houdon, who had been much perplex'd by the Accident of leaving his Things behind him, has found here the Tools and Material he wanted, and set out last Wednesday for General Washington's. My Grandson went the day after to New York, where the Congress are still sitting, and likely to sit the year out, having as I am told much Business, and finding it very difficult to agree upon the Mode of the Requisition. In general the Affairs of our Country seem to be in good Trim, the last Harvest good, our own Produce high, foreign Supplies both European & West Indian lower. We have indeed some Party Wranglings, but no free country was ever without them, and I do not think they are likely to produce any considerable bad consequences. Mr. Houdon had been furnish'd here with the value of Twenty-four Hundred Livres, for his occasion, for which he has drawn on you, in my favour. I find myself the better for my voyage, and I hope you continue well."

Adams, John, President of the U. S. and Signer of the Declaration of Independence. A. L. S. 4to. Quincy, Oct. 1, 1813. To Samuel Elliott, with franked address. VERY FINE.

A beautiful letter of sympathy to Mr. Elliott on the death of his son and speaking in highest terms of Mr. Vanderkemp.

"I rejoice in Mr. Vanderkemp's arrival at his home. I have known him more than three and thirty years. So long at least, I have admired his Learning and loved his heart. He was the bosom Friend and had the undoubted Esteem and Affection of Luzac, De Gyselaer, Van der Capellens, VanBerckles, &c. He was and Still is a rational Advocate for Liberty civil, political and religious, a liberal, candid Christian, an Enemy to Fraud, Perfidy, Persecution and Tyranny in every form and in every disguise, in Church and State. . . I wish there was more such Salt of the Earth as I believe this to be."

Sherman, Roger. Signer of the Declaration of Independence. D. S. 2 pages, folio. New Milford, Aug. 26, 1758.

Livingston, Robert R. Administered the Oath to Washington at the Inauguration. A. L. S. 2 pages, 4to. July 16, 1801. To Gov. Geo. Clinton.

AN INTERESTING LETTER IN REFERENCE TO THE CAUSES OF AN EXPECTED UPRISING OF THE INDIANS IN GEORGIA

- 375 FISHBOURN, BENJ. (Celebrated Colonel in the Revolutionary War.) A. L. S., 4 pp., folio. Augusta, June 26, 1787, to Governor Houston. $18.50

"In respect to the Situation with the Indians, the matter appears to me to stand on this footing,—some of our people (to their shame be it spokeing) have been guilty of murdering some of the Indians, and this has been since repeated on some of these poor wretches who were our best friends. These circumstances, with others, as aggravating, having determined the Indians to make preparations for War, and Barnard's letter, with the other letters from our Agents now in the Indian country, all breathe this Language that an Indian war is inevitable, but that the present is only preparation to a general war to commence about the time, the gathering of the corn, called by them, the Busk of the year. . . I regret that my county, for I have heretofore called Chatham county so, have been so lost to their own Independence and Virtue, (I may call it) as to elect and send on Tom Gibbons as a member of assembly for that county. O! Tempora, O! Mores,—but it is more to be regretted that Benedict Arnold is not an Inhabitant of Chatham county, that he may also enjoy the liberty and privilege of it, in common with Tom Gibbons and all others."

THE ORIGINAL DUPLESSIS PORTRAIT OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

- 389 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN. Original Pastel, painted from life, by J. S. Duplessis (1725-1802.) Considered by critics the FINEST OF ALL THE PORTRAITS OF FRANKLIN. $25,000.00

This celebrated portrait, which hung for many years in the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, is mentioned by Baedeker as one of the sights of the City of Philadelphia. It is considered not only the best and most animated picture of Franklin, but one of the finest examples of portraiture by any artist. It was painted by Duplessis in Paris, in 1778, when Franklin was Ambassador from the American Colonies, enlisting the aid of the French.

THE BOOKS AND LETTERS OF POOR RICHARD

FRANKLIN'S LETTER MENTIONING JOHN PAUL JONES

- 399 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN. A. L. S. 2 pp., folio, Passy, 19th May, 1779, to M. de Chaumont. $350.00

An unusually interesting letter dealing with a brawl among some of our sailors and mentioning John Paul Jones.

. . . "They are now under the Orders of Commodore (Paul) Jones whose authority exercised to Prudence and Temper will, I hope, be sufficient to compose these Dissentions and re-establish good Order and Harmony among those People, and to him I must leave them. I forwarded immediately your letter to M. de Sartine and the Marquis de La Fayette. . .

B. FRANKLIN."

For Jones letter defending Franklin see under Jones, J. P.

- 400 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN. A. L. S. 1 p., 4to, Passy,
Dec. 24, 1783. $165.00

This letter is remarkable as in it he mentions being troubled with a stone in the bladder and seeks a cure. Seven years later this malady was the primary cause of his death.

"Is there any dependence on dissolving Remedies for the Stone? Had I not better content myself with some Regimen that may prevent its growing?"

- 401 FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN. Rules for reducing a great Empire to a small one . . . To which is subjoined, The Declaration of Independence by the Representatives of the United States of America in General Congress assembled.

THE FIRST NEW JERSEY SESSION LAW PRINTED
BY FRANKLIN

- 404 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. An Act the better to enable the Inhabitants of this Colony [New Jersey] to support Government, discharge their Engagements in the Loan-Offices, and for Relieving their other Necessities by current Twenty Thousand Pounds in Bills of Credit. Small folio, unbound, in half morocco slip case. [Philadelphia, B. Franklin, 1732.] Pp. 283-299, (4). $585.00

The four unnumbered pages at the end contain the confirmation and ratification of this and another act by Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain.

They were undoubtedly printed by Franklin, who in 1732 received the contract to print the Laws of New Jersey.

Not mentioned by Evans and unknown to Hildeburn. The two authorizations printed by Franklin are believed to be UNIQUE.

- 405 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. A Letter From a Gentleman in Boston, To his Friend in Connecticut. 8vo, full levant morocco, extra, uncut. (Philadelphia: B. Franklin, 1744.) $275.00

One of the EARLIEST works published in America on Banking, Currency and Finance.

Attributed to the press of Benjamin Franklin and published in 1743-4; in answer to Webb, James. A Discourse concerning Paper Money, in which its Principles are laid open, etc. Philadelphia: W. Bradford, 1743-4.

- 406 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. The American Instructor: or, Young Man's Best Companion. Containing Spelling, Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic . . . By George Fisher, accomptant. 12mo, old sheep. Philadelphia: B. Franklin and D. Hall, 1748. $27.50

One of the most valuable books of its time as it contained information on almost every subject which might perplex the colonies.

- 407 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. Medicina Britannica, or a Treatise on Physical Plants, etc. By Thos. Short. With a PREFACE BY MR. JOHN BARTRAM, Botanist of Pennsylvania with his notes throughout the work. 8vo, original calf (Franklin binding). Philadelphia, B. Franklin and D. Hall, 1751. $285.00

A unique copy containing a bookplate printed by B. Franklin: "Patrick Carryl, His Book, 1750." The exact borders used by Franklin are in this exceedingly rare bookplate. Besides the ones made by Franklin for the Philadelphia Library we know of no other Franklin bookplate. The last copy of the book sold at auction brought $310.00 and was not as interesting or as fine as this.

Please do not buy it solely for its Franklin interest, as it is very valuable as an example of the careful scholarship of the celebrated American botanist John Bartram.

- 408 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. Some Account of the Pennsylvania Hospital; from its first Rise, to the Beginning of the Fifth Month, called May, 1754. 4to, leather. Philadelphia: Printed by B. Franklin, and D. Hall, 1754. $35.00

AN UNKNOWN FRANKLIN BROADSIDE

- 409 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. Articles of the Friendship Fire Company. [Philadelphia: Benjamin Franklin and D. Hall, 1755.] Folio Broadside. $265.00

Not in Hildeburn or Evans and probably the only copy in existence. It is well known that Benjamin Franklin was interested in protection against fire and he himself inaugurated the different fire companies in Philadelphia. This then is a most valuable item of Americana apart from its interest as a unique example from the press of Franklin.

- 410 FRANKLIN IMPRINT. An Extract from a Treatise by William Law, called, The Spirit of Prayer or, The Soul rising out of the Vanity of Time, into the Riches of Eternity. 8vo, boards, leather back (rubbed). Philadelphia: B. Franklin and D. Hall, 1760. $15.00

REVOLUTIONARY BROADSIDE

- 425 GAGE'S FOLLY: OR THE TALL FOX OUT-WITTED; An excellent New Song never before Printed. By a Farmer in the County of Worcester. Broadside, size $12\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Salem, Massachusetts, Printed by E. Russell, upper End of Main Street (1776). \$285.00

UNIQUE. Written in VERSE BY AN UNKNOWN PATRIOTIC SCRIBE. It contains at the top two crude woodcuts of Indians. The verse is very quaint:

From Briton's shore Gage sailed o'er
To Massachusetts Bay,
Quite void of fear he landed here
About the First of May.

But now poor Gage seems in a rage
To think he cursed the sea,
Because he finds the People's minds
Are bent on LIBERTY, etc., etc.

GENL. GATES GIVES AN ACCOUNT OF THE BRITISH ARMY IN BOSTON

- 430 GATES, HORATIO. A. L. S. 4 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, July 27, 1775. To Robt. Morris, with address. $125.00

Giving an account of the condition of the British Army in and around Boston, and mentions that the patriots are in a high state of spirits.

"You ask me for News, we have no News, and that I think is good News for America. We go on strengthening our Lines & Redoubts, and shall very soon be in so Strong a Camp, that I think rashness itself will not dare to attack us. Desertion begins to take place from BUNKER'S HILL. I should not wonder at its increasing to a degree alarming to The Ministerial Generals. Bad Salt Pork and Dry Pease is all these Soldiers have had to eat since the beginning of May, and the Water in, and near that Hill, is pernicious to Health, in consequence of Bad Food and Bad water, Fluxes & Scurvy, rage amongst the Troops & Carry off Numbers. We on our side are in good Health & Spirits, and not a Doubting, or Disponding Countenance to be seen, in BOSTON, the Contrary is said to be Visible, about Twenty Transports & a Man of War, are sailed from Boston, with about 400 Men on board, to Plunder Provisions. It is imagin'd they are gone towards Long & Rhode Islands. If the Inhabitants are Watchful, they may cutt off this Party. I should be Glad to know what effect the Lexington Fight had upon the people of England. I don't mean immediately after hearing it, but when Time and cool Reflections upon the Consequences, had taken place," etc.

GENL. GATES REFERS TO HIS LOSING THE COMMAND AFTER THE BATTLE OF CAMDEN

- 431 GATES, HORATIO. A. L. S. 4 pages, 4to. Berkeley County in Virginia, June 3, 1781. To Robt Morris, with address. $85.00

A very flattering letter to Mr. Morris on his abilities as a financier, and discusses the depreciation of the currency. He speaks of his own demotion in the army, thus:

"I conjecture this letter will reach your Hands about the Time of your Return from Head Qrs, you will have discovered there, what I am to expect from the Justice, and Generosity of General W—— (Washington) Surely I cannot be Shuffled out of Service, unless there is, or has been some Evident Design in Individuals to remove me from all Command, having solely in View, the Triumphant conclusion of this War, I do not reason from selfish Motives, had I been directed by them, my Home, my Family, and my Fortune, had been beyond Description more Delightfull than they unhappily are, but as Things stand, I would Feign see the Contest Decided in Favour of America, and as Beneficially as possible for myself. After all, I cannot believe there is so much ingratitude either in the People at Large, or even in Individuals, as to suffer the heavy hand of Power to Crush, or set aside the publics most Fortunate Servant.

The Arrival of Sir H. Clinton in Virginia, with all that went with Him, and before him from New York, must convince you, and all the World, that the Enemy have Transferred the theatre of the War into this State, consequently our Main Army must with all possible Expedition be marched to Oppose Them," &c.

GENL. GATES IN REFERENCE TO HIS COURT MARTIAL

- 432 GATES, HORATIO. A. L. S. 2 pages, folio. Berkeley County, Virginia, June 14, 1782. To Robt. Morris. $75.00

A fine letter in reference to charges against him, after the battle of Camden, which led to his retirement from the army.

"Sunday I received your Letter, of the 31st Ult. from Philadelphia, by your advising me to come, and take part in the Army. I am convinced you either was not acquainted with, or did not advert to GENERAL WASHINGTONS last letter to me, if the former, I send for your information, a copy of his Letter inclosed & from which you must be satisfied that my going to the Army without either Military or Ministerial Authority, would be improper. I requested you to lay My Letter before Congress, Because my debt to you was incurred upon their Account, and thinking likewise they in Justice ought to discharge it. I could not obtain an Inquiry at the Southern Army, of Course, it was my Duty to attend Congress for it & tho', to this moment, no charge is exhibited against me, They neither Received this resolution, nor held the Inquiry. General Washington in his Letter to me of 1st Nov, from York, says, 'Your Circumstance I view as Distressing, & lament your Situation. I sincerely wish Congress would direct some mode to give Relief, but this is not for me to Dictate' Surely it is very easy for Congress to Act with becoming Generosity towards me, with out doing any Violence to themselves, or to any of those they may at present be more disposed to Favour," etc.

GRANT TAKES PRECAUTION AGAINST THE INVASION OF WASHINGTON

- 452 GRANT, ULYSSES S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, July 16, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Halleck, Washington. $150.00

A highly important historical paper, showing the precaution Grant took to prevent the Confederate forces, under Early and others, from invading Washington.

"There can be no use in Wright following the enemy with the latter a day ahead after he has passed entirely beyond (south of) all our communications. I want if possible to get the 6th & 19th Corps here to use them before the enemy can get Early back. With Hunter in the Shenandoah Valley and always between the enemy and Washington, force enough can always be had to check an invasion until reinforcements can go from here. This does not prevent Hunter from following the enemy even to Gordonsville & Charlottesville, if he can do it with his own force and such other improvised troops as he can get. But he should be cautious not to allow himself squeezed out to one side so as to make it necessary to fall back into Western Va. to save his Army. If he does have to fall back it should be in front of the enemy and with his force always between the latter and the main crossings of the Potomac. I do not think there is now any further danger of an attempt to invade Maryland. The position of the enemy in the West and here is such as to demand all the force they can get together to save vital points to them. This last attempt brought to the field so many troops that they cannot conceive the possibility of succeeding in capturing any important point with a force of 30 or even 50,000 men whilst the main Union Army is within thirty hours of the Capital. As soon as the rebel Army is known to have passed Hunter's forces recall Wright and send him back here with all despatch and also send the 18th Corps. If the enemy has any notion of returning the fact will be developed before Wright can start back."

- 453 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 3 pages, 4to. City Point, Aug. 24, 1864, 10 P. M. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $37.50

"Your dispatch of 9.30 p. m., just received. I sent you a dispatch in Cipher from which you will see when received that I do not expect offensive operations tomorrow except in case of a success in Butler's front making it practicable. If we can retain hold of the rail-road it will be a great advantage. Has much of the rail-road been destroyed? After the men get well rested it will be well to support the Cavalry with a Division of Infantry to destroy as much of the road as we can if an advantage is not gained in the mean time making it unnecessary. If Butler does not succeed in the morning he will relieve the 18th Corps from the lines leaving it loose. With that as a reserve our lines will be strong."

- 454 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, small 4to. City Point, Aug. 25, 1864, 11.20 P. M. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $25.00

"The enemy having carried Hancock's rifle pits have probably captured a good number of prisoners. In that case and finding too that Hancock is being reinforced they will be likely to return to night with their prisoners and attack Warren in the morning. Warren ought to be well on his guard."

WANTS GENL. WARREN TO PREPARE FOR AN ATTACK

- 455 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Aug. 26, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $45.00

"I think the chances are that Warren will be attacked in rear this afternoon by the same force that attacked Hancock yesterday. There will probably be a demonstration on his front by all the force now occupying the lines in his front. If Warren can prepare for both a front and rear attack the enemy will be most severely handled. The Cavalry ought to watch the enemy well and give full notice of the direction from which he comes and when they are forced back into our lines they should fight on foot with our Infantry. If Warren can be further reinforced by putting Hancock's men on the line and relieving some now there it ought to be done. I give this as my view from the intercepted dispatch of Beauregard."

GENL. MEADE IS ORDERED TO TAKE COMMAND
AGAINST PETERSBURG

- 456 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, small 4to. City Point, Aug. 26, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $30.00

"You are ordered at all times until further orders to assume command and direct the movements of all troops operating against Petersburg South of the Appomattox."

- 457 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Aug. 29, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $65.00

"I will direct work to be commenced on the railroad extension at once. I do not want to give up the Wheldon road if it can be avoided until we get Richmond. That may be months yet. To facilitate operations wagons returning from near the Norfolk road, and from the Wheldon road should throw in a light load of rails and bring them to the present depot. No rails however should be brought from the Norfolk road East of where the proposed road will intersect it unless the engineers deem it expedient to haul in wagons all the rails that will be required. When the road is finished to that point, a train of Cars could be run down the road and used to bring up the rails. Again if wagons were to be used exclusively in placing where they are wanted four parties could work at once one from the Wheldon road North, two from the Norfolk one North and the other South and one from the City Point road. The manner of doing the work will be submitted to the Engineers."

GOOD NEWS FROM SHERMAN

- 458 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4to. City Point, Sept. 21, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Butler. $35.00

"Further news from Sherman is better than the first we had. In pursuing the enemy up the Valley Lee may be induced to detach from here. Put every one on the lookout for any movement of the enemy. Should any force be detached we must either manage to bring them back or gain an advantage here."

HOPES MEADE CAN CAPTURE PETERSBURG

- 459 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Sept. 29, 1864, 11 P. M. To Maj.-Gen. Butler, Deep Bottom. $37.50

"Gen. Meade will attack at daylight in the morning. If the enemy have detached largely he may be able to carry Petersburg. If so I can send two Corps using rail road & Steamers for the Infantry. On account of this attack I want to remain here through the day. I will go to Deep Bottom however to meet you, leaving here at 5 a. m."

- 460 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. City Point, Sept. 30, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Butler, Deep Bottom. $45.00

"Gen. Meade's forces met with some success today capturing a few prisoners, two redoubts and some rifle pits. But late this evening in moving two Divisions of the 9th Corps to flank the enemy they were attacked furiously by two Divisions of Hill's Corps and forced back somewhat leaving some of their wounded and some other prisoners in the hands of the enemy. A Division of the 5th Corps moved up to their assistance and checked any further advance and it is thought with heavy slaughter of the enemy. This would look as if no heavy force had been sent North of the James. I think it will be advisable for you to reconnoitre up the Darbytown road and if there appears to be any chance for an advance, make it."

- 461 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Nov. 10, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Terry. $20.00

"It will now be better to keep your cavalry to watch the movement of the enemy. They had better push out in the morning to discover if any movement is on foot, but not to go on the expedition ordered today."

- 462 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, small 4to. City Point, Nov. 11, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Meade. $37.50

"The Enemy have been moving on Gen. Terry's front all day apparently massing troops to our right. At Same time there appears to be troops massed North of the James, below our left on the river. These are probably the troops reported yesterday to have left Hill's Corps. If the enemy should attack Terry it will be out of the question to reinforce him from you, but be prepared to attack at Petersburg either by moving to the left or in some weak point in front as may seem best. The movements of the enemy may mean nothing, but they will bear watching."

- 463 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Dec. 10, 1864. To Gen. Ord. $45.00

"There is very good evidence that Hoke's Division went South several days ago. If so Field's & Kershaw's are the only two left. You can reinforce by taking a part of your force from Bermuda. Your lines are very strong and by rapidly moving your reserves from where they are not wanted to where they are, I think you will be able to hold against the enemy. It is hardly likely they will mass much fire on your extreme right and endanger being cut off from Richmond. Great vigilance however will be necessary on your whole line and especially so about daylight in the morning. It might be a proper precaution to send all your surplus teams South of the river or inside the fort at Deep Bottom."

- 464 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4to. Head Quarters, City Point, Dec. 11, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Butler, Fortress Monroe. $25.00

"Richmond papers of the 10th show that on the 7th Sherman was East of the Ogechee and within twenty-five miles of Savannah, having marched eighteen miles the day before. If you do not get off immediately you will loose the chance of surprise and weak garrison."

GRANT MENTIONS SHERMAN'S FAMOUS MARCH

- 465 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4to. City Point, Dec. 11, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Halleck, Washington. $45.00

"There has been no news from Warren since the evening after he left. The Richmond papers however contain no news of any engagement with him beyond a rumored fight between Hampton's Cavalry and some of his forces. A force of some 8,000 men were sent South yesterday under Gen. Potter to secure his return. The latest news contained in Richmond papers of yesterday from Sherman's Army, says that on the 7th he was East of the Ogechee twenty-five miles from Savannah moving on that place. On the 6th he had marched his Army eighteen miles."

- 466 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. City Point, Dec. 12, 1864. To Maj.-Gen. Sheridan, Kearntown, Va. $50.00

"I think there is no doubt but that all of Gordon's & Pegram's Divisions are here. The inhabitants of Richmond are supplied exclusively over the roads North of James River. If it is possible to destroy the Va. Central road it will go far towards starving out the garrison of Richmond. The Weldon road has been largely used until now notwithstanding it has been cut to Stony Creek. It is now gone to Hicksford and I think can be of no further use. If the enemy are known to have retired to Stanton you will either be able to make a dash on the Communications North of the James or spare a part of your force. Let me know your views as to the best course, to make a dash on the Central road & Canal or to detach from your Command."

- 467 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. City Point, Dec. 31, 1864. To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Sec. of War. $37.50

"The Chief Com'y goes from here this morning to Fortress Monroe to provision the Steamers collecting there and I had given directions his guess as to object was that Steamers were going after Sherman's Army to bring them here. He has not yet received any orders and does not even know that steamers are being collected. I will instruct him to say confidentially that he thinks we are either sending for Sherman or that we are going to reinforce him inclining to the latter opinion."

- 468 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 4 pages, 8vo. City Point, no month, 24, 1864. To Ass't Sec. Fox. $55.00

"If the Rebel Rams do not get down tonight, I think everything will be safe before to-morrow night. I expect but little assistance however in case of an attack from the Navy under Capt. Parker. I have been compelled to take the matter in my own hands to get vessels to the front ordering by direction of the Sec. of the Navy. I know no reason why the Torpedo boat did not attack. As I understand the rebel rams run our batteries to the obstruction and then leisurely removed and blew them up only opposed by a little infantry from the shore. When I sent up before daylight Capt. Parker had Removed the Monitor to below the Pontoon bridge. To-night I understand he has hauled down the river leaving what obstructions still remain to be removed without opposition from him. I have sent an urgent appeal for him to go back. I have been busy all day getting up material to renew the obstructions and Army officers are now at it."

PLEASED WITH COM. RADFORD, AND THE WAY HE TALKS

- 469 GRANT, U. S. Autograph Dispatch, signed, 2 pages, 4to. City Point, Feb. 25, 1865. To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Sec. of War. $45.00

"I am very much pleased with the interest Commodore Radford seems to take in his duties and the way he talks. Adml. Farragut can tell better than I can how he will do when danger comes. The probabilities of an attack from the Rebel Navy on the first rise in the river is anticipated, and every preparation made to receive it. I have not the slightest apprehension about the result and rather desire it. We are far differently prepared now both on land and water, from what we were the last time the Rebel Iron Clads came down. I think we must very soon use either Adml. Farragut or Porter in capturing Galveston. It will be but a very short time I hope before we will be able to spare the troops for this purpose from here or from Cape Fear River."

REMARKABLE LETTERS OF GENERAL GREENE

- 470 GREENE, NATHANAEL, GENERAL. A. L. S., 2 pp. folio. Camp 7 miles above Camden, May 4, 1781. To Colonel Henry Lee. $65.00

Written after the defeat at Hobkirk's Hill, giving suggestions as to military movements.—

"I got intelligence last evening that Lord Cornwallis was on his march towards Cross Creek, and that he moved with his usual rapidity. It is supposed he is coming towards Camden, however it is possible he may be pushing for our stores on the upper route. But in either case it will be necessary for us to collect our force as soon as we can; and therefore am to request that you will begin your march immediately and bring the field pieces & all the force detached from this Army with You. On your march get all the good Dragoon horses you can. . . . If you are on the East side of the river it will be necessary to cross, as Lord Cornwallis should he come towards Camden by the way of the Cheraws will fall in with you unless you cross the river, nor is there any other way to form a junction with me, with equal safety and despatch," etc.

- 471 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 2 pp. folio. Camp 25 Mile Creek, May 7, 1781. To General Sumter. $65.00

Uncertain as to Cornwallis' movements, he writes to Sumter telling him to be in readiness to join him if necessity should require it.—

"There is no further intelligence from Lord Cornwallis which convinces me he is moving Northerly. Before I can determine upon any general plan of operation I wish to have that first ascertained.

"General Marion and Col. Lee are operating against the fort at Motts.

"I think you under rate the Post at Ninty Six, is the fort strong or weak?

"Your writing needs no apology rely upon it I understand you perfectly and meet with no difficulty in reading your letters. On the contrary they are plain, clear and intelligible."

- 472 GREENE, NATHANAEL, A. D. S., 2 pp. folio. Saluda, June 6, 1781. To the Inhabitants upon the Saluda. $45.00

An autograph address entirely in Greene's handwriting, relating to the cruelties of the Tories, and at the same time proposing to pardon and protect them, on certain condition. IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.—

"Mr. Lock having represented that a party of Men said to belong to Col. Hammond's Regiment are murdering and plundering the Inhabitants not in arms in a most barbarous and cruel manner. It is impossible for me to express my abhorrence and detestation of such a practice, and they may be assured that no endeavors promised shall be wanting to restrain and check such violence. Those that have been in the British interest and by their past conduct have rendered themselves obnoxious to their Country have now an opportunity in part to atone for their past conduct by joining the American Army and manifesting by their future conduct sincere repentence."

". . . In the mean time it shall be my study upon their behaving properly to afford them all the security in my power from the improper resentments and depredations of individuals or plundering parties."

- 473 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 2 pp. folio. Camp before 96, June 7, 1781. To Abel Thomas and Thomas Winslow two travelling Quaker Preachers; [ALSO] The original autograph letter signed by the above mentioned Quakers, and dated "Long Cane the 4th of the 6th month," being the letter sent to General Greene, to which the above-mentioned Greene letter is a reply. Together, 2 pieces.

The letter of Greene's is unusually interesting, as he refers to his own bringing up, his people having been Quakers. His argument for their good wishes is fine. These Quaker preachers were certainly zealous, for after having been turned back two hundred miles they came again.

Greene's letter reads in part as follows,—

" . . . From the good opinion I have of the people of your profession being bred and educated among them, I am persuaded your visit is purely religious and in this persuasion have granted you a pass, and I shall be happy if your ministry shall contribute to the establishment of morality and brotherly kindness among the people, than which no Country ever wanted it more.

"I am sensible your principles and professions are opposed to war, but I know you are fond of both political and religious liberty. This is what we are contending for, and by the blessing of God we hope to establish them upon such a broad basis as to put it out of the power of our enemies to shake its foundation. In the laudable endeavour I expect at least to have the good wishes of your people as well for their own sakes as for me who wishes to serve them upon all occasions not inconsistent with the public welfare."

- 474 GREENE, NATHANAEL. Letter written and signed with Greene's name, in the handwriting of his aide, J. Burnet. 1 p. 4to. Headquarters 5 Miles on the Road from Saluda to Williamson's Fort, June 20, 1781. To General Sumter. $50.00

"The enemy at 8 o'clock this morning were three miles below Saluda . . . advancing towards Ninety Six. Colonel Washington & Lee are with the Cavalry on that side of the river.

" . . . I am anxious to collect our forces . . . I beg you will march your troops & form a junction with us . . . near the fort at William's plantation."

Together, 4 pieces, each inlaid, and hinged, with a typewritten transcript of each.

- 475 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 3 pp. 4to. Camp on Bush River, June 22, 1781. To General Sumter. $50.00

"Col. Polk has been with me and represented your situation. I am sorry to find the Militia fell off in the manner they do. At present I can determine upon no precise plan of operations. My object will be to oblige if possible the British Army to retire from the District of Ninety Six. Lt. Coll. Lee will move down into the lower Country and I wish Col. Middleton to join and move down with him. We shall move towards Liles ford on Broad river. You will continue in the neighbourhood where you are and collect and arrange the Militia as fast as you can. Should the enemy move towards us we will form a junction. General Pickens is collecting a considerable force. . . .

"Col. Polk informs me your health is getting worse and your wound more troublesom. I am sorry on your, my own, and the public's account, as it will be a great misfortune especially in our present situation. . . ."

GREENE'S LETTER ABOUT THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON

- 476 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 2 pp. folio. N. p., n. d. [Charleston, November, 1782.] To Major Roxburgh. $50.00

Interesting letter relative to the Siege and Evacuation of Charleston, South Carolina. Gives instruction regarding military movements.—

"From the great uncertainty of the enemies evacuating Charlestown this winter if at all I am induced to halt your troops. . . . If they dont evacuate in a few days I shall be pretty fully convinced they dont mean to this winter; and therefore it will be unsafe and improper for your Troops to go home.

"If you are not past Camden before this Letter over takes you, you will halt at that place until you hear farther from me. Should you have passed that place any considerable distance you will go on to Salisbury and there halt until further orders. You may expect orders to return or go forward in four or five days at farthest. . . ."

". . . I don't propose to halt the Pennsylvania Troops as their time is soon out let what will happen. If you should have passed Salisbury before this over takes you you will return to that place."

- 477 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 2 pp. folio. Headquarters (Charleston, S. C.), November 18, 1782. To Governor (John) Mathews (of South Carolina). $85.00

Relative to the Siege of Charleston. We quote in full.—

"Your favor of yesterday is before me respecting the mode of taking possession of Charlestown and I have to inform you that should the enemy evacuate the place your wishes shall be carried into execution as far as possible should no manoeuvres of the Enemy render other measures necessary. I wish your Excellency to be prepared to follow the Troops as early as you can render it convenient as the curiosity and impatience of the people will be great and a long restraint will set both heavily and disagreeably upon them. When you are ready to enter the Town if you will be so obliging as to let me know it I will order a party of horse to conduct you in."

GREENE MAKES PREPARATIONS TO ENTER CHARLESTON

- 478 GREENE, NATHANAEL. A. L. S., 3 pp. folio. Headquarters (Charleston, S. C.), November 22, 1782. To General (Francis) Marion. $85.00

A letter of unusual interest, giving instructions as to the entry into Charleston, should the British evacuate the town, which he thinks must take place in three or four days. The evacuation actually took place on December 14, nearly twenty days later than Greene hoped for. We quote in full,—

"For fear the Militia with you may imagine they are kept out of Town should the enemy leave at the instance of the Army, I have sent you a copy of the Governors letter on the subject. I should not have thought this necessary but I have with concern seen but too many trying to stir up jealousies between the army and the Citizens and as nothing is more destructive to the interest of both I wish to take every precaution to prevent it. Not that the Army has much at stake, but it is for the good of the common camp that a right understanding should subsist between them.

"As there will be a variety of characters in Charles town and as the officers of the Army are Strangers to the whole I should be obliged to you with three or four of your particular friends to enter the Town with the party that takes possession or as soon after as possible and remain there until the Governor arrives. The Country Militia you may dismiss the moment you are informed the Town is evacuated. But at present I am at a loss to tell how or when it is to happen; but I think if at all it must take place in three or four days."

A GREAT REVOLUTIONARY WAR LETTER

- 479 GREENE, NATHANAEL. Letter in the handwriting of his Aide, N. Pendleton. 6 pp. folio. Headquarters, December 19, 1782. To Congress. $275.00

A very long and interesting letter, communicating an account of the Evacuation of Charleston.

"I have the honor to communicate to your Excellency the agreeable information of the Evacuation of Charles Town; . . . The enemy completed their embarkation on the 14th, and on the 17th crossed the bar and went to sea. . . . the Hessians . . . for New York, and the British troops for the West Indies. . . . Leslie hinted to Wayne . . . that an attack might lay the town in ashes . . . otherwise care should be taken for its preservation . . . make a treaty if possible for the safety of the town . . . evacuated without disorder or confusion. The enemy had 18,000 regular troops and thousands of militia," etc.

THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS IN SESSION AT BALTIMORE

- 495 HANCOCK, JOHN. A. L. S. folio. Baltimore, Feb. 26, 1777. To Robert Morris. VERY FINE. $260.00

An important historical letter. Morris informs him on account of the movements of Howe's Army at Brunswick, it would not be prudent for Congress to leave Baltimore for Philadelphia.

"In Consequence of yours by Express respecting the State of our Army, & the Reinforcements of Howe's Army at Brunswick, & y'r opinion that at present it would not be prudent for Congress to Return to Philad^a, the Congress have determin'd to suspend their Remove for some days, at least until we hear from you, which I hope will be soon, and that the way is clear for us to pursue our own cause. We must give these fellows a trimming, if we can but subdue the present force in the Jerseys, I think the Day is ours, one noble Exertion by a large Body flying to the support of the General, with a determination to oppose Howe's Army at all Events, would effect the Business and before any Reinforcements could Arrive from Europe we should be in such Readiness as soon to give a good Acco't of them. Tho' I believe they will soon be tir'd of their Game. We have got the Trumps. Let us play the game well.

"I refer you to my Letters to the General, & the resolves of Congress therein. I have left the Letters open for your perusal, after which please to Seal & forward to the Genl. by a special Express, as also the one to Gov. Livingston & The Convention of New York, all to go by Express, please also to Send the Letters Inclos'd to yo'r Council of Safety. I am almost hurried to Death, but must keep at it, however I know you will Excuse me in not adding as I am really pinch'd for time," &c.

HANCOCK STATES THAT IF THE MONEYED MEN WILL NOT GIVE THEIR MONEY TO HELP THE WAR IT ARGUES A WANT OF PATRIOTISM

- 496 HANCOCK, JOHN, A. L. S. folio. Baltimore, Feb. 27, 1777. To Robert Morris. VERY FINE. $185.00

Bitterly complaining because Morris had countermanded the order for wagons to carry the State papers from Baltimore to Philadelphia.

"I enclose you the Resolves of Congress, respecting the Augmentation of the Interest, I hope will now have the Effect of Taking off all the Certificates at the Loan Office. I think if Moneyed Men will not give in their money it will argue a want of Patriotism at least. My Dear Friend, you have Reduced me to a most distress'd Situation as I find by a Letter this moment Rec'd from Mr. Taylor my Sec'y that you had Counterorder'd my Waggon; what I shall do, I know not. I can't get away here. Congress is Adjourned to Philad^a and I must be there on Wednesday next 10 O'clock A. M. & I cannot Remove my Papers, & by the Stoppage of the Waggon am oblig'd to leave the whole of my Family behind. For God's Sake, hurry the Waggon along. I know you did it for the best, but it has distress'd me immensely, let me intreat you to order the Waggon on instantaneously. Thompson is oblig'd to stay behind for want of those Waggon. I shall set off on Saturday alone to my great Mortification & hope to meet the Waggon on the Road. Aid all you can, pray have the Waggon, or Business will suffer amazingly."

ELECTS A SIGNER GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA

- 505 HARRISON, BENJAMIN, Signer of the Declaration of Independence. A. L. S., 2 pages, 4to. Richmond, Dec. 28, 1781. To Robert Morris, with franked address. $85.00

An interesting letter, informing Mr. Morris that he has been chosen Governor of Virginia.

"Before this reaches you I suppose you will have heard of my being placed at the head of the State; it is a place of great honor and trust, but by no means one that will excite envy in those who know the Situation of the Country, and consider what I shall have to go thro'; I have for some time avoided the appointment, but on my friend Nelson's resignation, as a good citizen I could do it no longer. The art of government in old and establish'd constitutions, is by no means easy, what must it be then in ours, which at present is little short of Anarchy and Confusion; nothing that I know of will carry me thro' with any tolerable eclat, but weighing well everything of moment that I have to do, and when I have taken my determination, to carry it thro' with perseverance & resolution; such a conduct may succeed if I am not overruled by my Council, but as they are good men, I have at present no fear on that head, let matters go on as they may. I am embarked and neither dangers nor difficulties shall affright me, or prevent my using every means to arrive in a port of Safety. * * * I must support the Character I am in, in some degree at least, and as this Country is quite without any thing that is good, I must trespass on your friendship so far, as to beg the favor of you to order me a pipe of best Maderia and one of Sherry to the head of Elk, to the care of some gent^l there, who will forward them to me at this place by the first safe opp'y, but I must candidly tell you, I shall not be in Cash to pay for them, in less than three or four months, and therefore wish you to act as it may suit you, either to order them or not; you will excuse me for giving you this trouble. I know you don't deal in this way, but I have no other friend from whom I can ask such a favor."

ONE OF TWO KNOWN COPIES OF AN IMPORTANT BOOK

- 510 HASENCLEVER, PETER. The Remarkable Case of Peter Hasenclever, Merchant; formerly one of the Proprietors of the Iron Works, Pot Ash Manufactory, &c., established and successfully carried on under his Direction, in the PROVINCES OF NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY, in North America, 'til November, 1766. 8vo, original paper covers, in half red morocco slip case. London, 1773. $560.00

ONE OF TWO KNOWN PERFECT COPIES, the other being in the collection of Mr. H. F. DePuy. This work is really a monument in the history of American industry. It gives the production of the various iron works, the sources of supply, the cost of conducting the business and other important details. The pamphlets and books relating to the establishment in the colonies of the various industries have not been appreciated and it is well to remember that the whole frame-work of this country is based on its manufactures. Early battle-scenes, little tracts of worthless early American poetry and crude (but seductive!) engravings of our cities are bringing fabulous prices in the auction-rooms and it is now about time for the REAL THINGS to receive proper recognition.

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE VIRGINIA BOOK

- 519 HELLIER, THOMAS. The Vain Prodigal Life, and Tragical Penitent Death of Thomas Hellier Born at Whitchurch near Lyme in Dorset-Shire: Who for Murdering his Master, Mistress, and a Maid, was Executed according to Law at Westover, in Charles City, in the Country of Virginia, neer the Plantation called Hard Labour, where he perpetrated the said Murders. He Suffer'd on Munday the 5th of August, 1678. And was after Hanged up in Chains at Windmill-Point on James River. Small 4to, brown levant morocco, Janseniste, gilt edges, by Gruel.

London: Printed for Sam. Crouch, at the Princes Arms, a corner-shop of Popes-head-alley in Cornhil, 1680.

Fine copy of a book which from its very nature must be exceedingly rare.

"Honest Mr. Hellier" was once a bookseller and had "judgment to eat any Letters, Knots, or Devices into Mettals by Chymical waters" and was "a dextrous hand at Ingravine in Mettals and Carving in Wood." He got into debt and went to Virginia. He sold himself to the owner of "the Plantation called Hard Labour" he to teach his master's children. Instead they put him at work in the field. One of the "reflections" of the Rev. Williams who wrote down Hellier's story was:

"'Tis more for the Interest of Virginia to have their Servants chop Logs lustily, than to chop Logick. Handling the Howe [hoe] proves here far better Musick than the Houghboy."

JOHNSTON GIVES HIS VIEWS OF THE DUTY OF THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE AFTER THE SURRENDER

- 604 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. A. L. S. 3 pages, 8vo. Abingdon, Oct., 1865. To Genl. Beauregard. $67.50

In reference to Genls. Sherman and Grant being able to procure a restitution of Beauregard's baggage, and giving his views of the duty of the Southern people after the surrender.

"I don't think that there is any substantial difference between your opinion of the duties of our People & mine. I have advised our soldiers & all others likely to be influenced by my opinion, to exert themselves to revive the prosperity of their several States & restore their political rights & influence. I have represented, like yourself, that the result of the war decided all old issues, & that it is our part to accept the decision of the tribunal to which we referred the questions between ourselves & the U. S. But that our return to the Union would inevitably reestablish the old influence of the south, which on all political questions we be aided by the northern democrats. That Union is undoubtedly the only mode of defeating the Republican party. It is the President's only chance to obtain the power of his office, & control of the country. I suppose you saw Genl. Jordan's article in Harper's Magazine in relation to Mr. Davis, very sorry that it was Published so soon. Mr. Davis' situation excites strong sympathy for him, which prevents impartial judgment at present. It is singular what admiration is felt for him by the sympathisers with us in England & the North. They seem to have made an ideal character by the help of non-intercourse, & called it Jeffer: Davis. The Opinion is prevalent in all this range of country, that he is to be tried & if convicted, pardoned."

- 605 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. Military Telegrams. Feb. 14 and July 17, 1861, and during the first half of 1865. To Genl. Beauregard. 33 pieces. $35.00

- 606 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. Copy of a Letter, 4to. Manassas, Sept. 11, 1861. To Genl. Beauregard. $3.50

Relative to the Battle of Manassas.

- 607 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. A. L. S. 4to. Centreville, Oct. 23, 1861. To Genl. Beauregard. $5.00

Relative to an intended attack of the enemy along the whole front.

- 608 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. A. L. S. 8vo. Head Qrs. Dec. 30, 1861. To Genl. Beauregard. $7.50

Relative to Genl. Early's position.

"I forgot to speak to you today in regard to Early's position, I mean his continuing in his present one. It seems to me worse than that in which Col. Garland placed himself, which we disapproved. Should we have to fight here, his men would be moving baggage while others were preparing for battle. Then should the enemy remain in presence for a few days, they would be out of doors."

- 609 JOHNSTON, JOSEPH E. Military Telegram. Hillsboro, April 26, 1865. To Genl. Beauregard.

In reference to the truce with Sherman. "Stop the movements of troops (in consequence of new armistice)." Endorsed with initials of Genl. Beauregard.

COM. JOHN PAUL JONES MENTIONS HIS DISGUST
WITH THE TREATMENT HE RECEIVED AT THE FRENCH COURT

- 616 JONES, JOHN PAUL. L. S. 3 pages, 4to. Alliance,
Texel, Dec. 5, 1779. To Robt. Morris. $565.00

An exceedingly interesting letter written from on board the Alliance in which he shows his thorough disgust of the treatment which he received from the French Court in the way of employing him in their navy. He mentions that as soon as he places his prisoners in France that he will come back to America in hopes that his friends in Congress may give him a position in the navy.

"By the within dispatches for Congress I am persuaded that you will observe with pleasure that my Connection with a Court is at an end, and that my prospect of returning to America Approaches.

"The Great seem to wish only to be concerned with Tools who dare not speak or write the truth! I am not sorry that my Connection with them is at an end——In the Course of that Connection I ran ten chances of ruin and dishonor for One of Reputation; and all the Honors or profit that France could bestow should not tempt me again to undertake the same service with an Armament equally ill composed and with powers equally limited. It affords me the most exalted pleasure that when I return to America I can say that I have served in Europe at my own expense and without the Fee or Reward of a Court—when the Prisoners we have taken are safely lodged in France.
I shall have no further Business in Europe as the liberty of all our fellow Citizens who now Suffer in English Prisons will then be Secured; And I shall hope hereafter to be more usefully employed under the immediate direction of the Congress," Etc., etc.

ONE OF THE FINEST LETTERS KNOWN OF COM.
JOHN PAUL JONES. HE TELLS OF BEING PRES-ENTED WITH A SWORD BY LOUIS XVI.
DEFENDS DR. FRANKLIN AGAINST THE MACHI-NATIONS OF ARTHUR LEE.

- 617 JONES, JOHN PAUL. Letter Signed, 3 pages, folio.
L'Orient, June 27, 1780. To Robert Morris. $975.00

A highly important historical letter, in which he tells of Louis XVI presenting him with a sword, and wishes to bestow the Order of Merit on him, for the first time it was ever given to a stranger. He defends the character of Dr. Franklin against the machinations of Arthur Lee, whose treachery he denounces.

"I have deferred writing you since my return to this Kingdom, because I had orders myself to return in the Alliance immediately to Philadelphia. I was under a necessity of going to Court in April to procure the free sale of the Serapis, and our other prizes, and was received by the Royal Family, Government & People, with that open armed Affection that so nobly marks the Character of this generous Minded Nation; His Majesty ordered a superb Sword to be made for me with an Inscription in Latin on the Blade, that would do honor to the greatest Admiral in History; The King directed his Minister to write a special letter to the President of Congress, expressing in the strongest terms his personal esteem towards me, with his entire approbation of my Conduct, particular desire to promote my future success, and to see me again at his Court &c. To this his Majesty was pleased to add a letter to his Minister, M: LeChev^r de la Luzerne directing him, to ask permission of Congress, to invest me with the order of Military Merit, an Honor that was never before offer'd to a Stranger, who had not actually served either in the Navy or Army of France.

"The brave Men who so gloriously served with me in the Bon Homme Richard, are now confined as prisoners in the Hold of the Alliance, and treated with every mark of indignity. I had destined them to compleat a Crew for the Ariel, and have demanded them in vain for that purpose. I cannot see where all this will end, but surely it must fall dreadful on the heads of those who have stirred up this Causeless mutiny, for my own part I shall make no other remark, than, that I never directly nor indirectly sought after the command of the Alliance, but after having in obedience to orders commanded her for Seven months, and after Mr. Lee had made a written application to me as Commander of that Ship for a passage to America, I am at a loss what name to give Mr. Lees late Conduct and duplicity in stirring up a mutiny in favour of the Man who was at first sent to America contrary to Mr. Lees opinion, by Mr. Dean, and who is actually under Arrest by an order of his Sovereign. What gives me the greatest pain is that after I had obtained from Government the means of transporting to America under a good protection the Arms and cloathing I have already mentioned, Mr. Lee should have found means to defeat my intentions. I thank God I am of no party and have no Brothers nor Relations to Serve; but I am convinced that Mr. Lee has acted in this matter merely because I would not become the Enemy of the venerable, and Wise, and good Franklin, whose Heart as well as Head, does and will always do honor to human nature. I know the Great and Good in this Kingdom better perhaps than any other American who has appeared in Europe, since the treaty of Alliance; and if my testimony could add any thing to Franklins reputation, I could witness the universal veneration, and esteem, with which his name inspires all ranks; not only at Versailles and all over this Kingdom, but also in Spain, and in Holland, and I can add from the testimony of the first Characters of other Nations, that with them, envy itself is dumb, when the name of Franklin is but mentioned. You will bear me witness my worthy Friend that I never asked a favor for myself from Congress for you have seen all my letters and know that I never even sought any indirect influence, though my Ambition to act an Eminent and useful part, in this glorious revolution is unbounded. I pledge myself to you and to America, that my Zeal receives new ardour from the oppositions it meets with, and I live but to overcome them, and to prove myself no mock Patriot, but a true friend to the rights of human nature upon principles of disinterested Philanthropy. of this I have already given some proof and I will give more. Let not therefore the Virtuous Senate of America be mislead by the insinuations of fallen Ambition; should any thing be said to my disadvantage, all I ask is a suspension of Judgment untill I can appear before Congress to answer for myself." Etc., etc.

LAFAYETTE WISHES FOR A BATTLE WITH GENL.
HOWE, AND COMPLIMENTS GENL.
WASHINGTON

- 645 LAFAYETTE, MARQUIS DE. A. L. S. "The Marquis de Lafayette," 2 pages, 4to. Head Quarters, Jan. 9 (1778). To Robert Morris, written in English. $185.00

An important letter in reference to identification of some French men who came to America, and speaks of a wished-for battle with Genl. Howe, and winds up with a beautiful compliment to Genl. Washington.

"If General Howe gives to us a good chance of beating him, certainly we must not lose it, but if he stays at home, if in all it would be imprudent to meet him with his actual forces against ours, my dear Sir, we must be quiete and try to have an army before having any fight I am sorry my conscience obliges me to have an opinion which is so much against my inclination, but what I look upon as to be the advantage of our cause, shall always go before any interested idea for my own reputation and pleasure. As I came here to fight, fighting is the most pleasant occupation I can wish, and I shall be the happiest of men when I shall believe it can be attended with any advantage for America, but, Sir, we have at our head a great judge, a man to whom America and principally the army is to have a confidence as extended as the love he deserves from them, and when he will think proper to fight I shall believe always that we have good reasons for it."

- 646 LAFAYETTE, MARQUIS DE. A. L. S. "The Marquis de Lafayette," 2 pages, 4to. (Camp, Dec., 1777). To Robt. Morris, with address. $50.00

A fine copy of this celebrated plan. Accompanying the map is a fac-simile of Blodget's "Prospective Plan of the Battle near Lake George," the descriptive pamphlet of the action.

AN EXTREMELY RARE BOOK IN DEFENCE OF LORD BALTIMORE

- 652 LANGFORD, JOHN. A Just and Cleere Refutation of a false and scandalous Pamphlet Entituled, BABYLON'S FALL IN MARYLAND. Small 4to, half morocco, in red levant morocco solander case. London: Printed for the Author, 1655. $2850.00

ONLY A FEW COPIES ARE KNOWN OF THIS VERY IMPORTANT PAMPHLET. It was doubtless privately issued for the author's friends as no publisher is given, merely "Printed for the Author" on the title page. No copy is recorded in "Auction Prices." The pamphlet was written in answer to Leonard Strong, and the author, who is described as a "Servant to Lord Baltimore" received from his lordship a gift of fifteen hundred acres of land in Maryland as a reward for writing this work.

- 655 LAS CASAS, BARTOLOMEO, BISHOP OF CHIAPA. Autograph letter, signed. 3 pages, folio, Oct. 2, 1545. Written in Spanish to the President and Council.

A long letter of great importance relating to the oppression of the Indians by the Spaniards.

"That your Lordships will effectually remedy the oppressions which are fallen upon the native Indian flock throughout my bishopric, especially the excessive tribute demanded by and extortion of the Spaniards, who treat the people as wild beasts by day and night," etc.

[Also] A letter, signed, 14½ pages folio. To "Muy Rdos y charissimos padres mios."

On the same subject.

Bound, with a portrait, in a folio volume, in red straight-grained morocco, by Rivière. $3700.00

ORIGINAL AND ONLY EARLY ENGLISH EDITION

- 656 LAS CASAS, BARTHOLOMEO. The Spanish Colonie, or Briefe Chronicle of the Acts and gestes of the Spaniardes in the West Indies, called the Newe World, for the space of xl. yeeres. Small 4to, straight-grained morocco. Imprinted at London for William Broome, 1583. [Colophon:] Imprinted at London at the three Cranes in the Vintree by Thomas Dawson, for William Broome, 1583. $1600.00

OF THE UTMOST RARITY. Title within wood cut border with Dawson's initials and signature "E. Osb" written thereon. A superb copy of one of the great classical works relating to America.

- 657 LAS CASAS, BARTHOLOMEW. Tyrannies et Cruautez des Espagnols perpetrees es Indes Occidentales, quon dit le Nouveau Monde; . . traduites par Jaques de Migrode . . 16mo, full calf. Anvers: 1579. $65.00

This is a translation of the first, second and sixth of Las Casas' Tracts, in which the horrible cruelties recorded by the Bishop, are softened so as not too greatly offend the ears of the Spaniards.

- 658 LATOUR, A. L. Historical Memoir of the War in West Florida and Louisiana in 1814-15. 2 vols., 8vo, the atlas in full red morocco, the text in half red morocco, uncut. Philadelphia, 1816. $48.00

Latour's "War in Florida" has always been rare and it is generally found imperfect. This is a superb copy, complete in every detail, and what is more remarkable it is in UNCUT STATE.

- 658a. LA TROBE, BENJAMIN. A Succinct View of the Missions Established among the Heathen (Indians) by the Church of the Brethren or UNITAS FRATRUM. 8vo, original blue covers, uncut. London: M. Lewis, 1771. $35.00

A very valuable historical narrative of the Mission among the INDIANS, particularly of the Ohio country. It is one of the most desirable tracts relative to the United Brethren in America. We cannot trace the sale of any copy at auction.

- 659 LATROBE, CHARLES JOSEPH. The Rambler in North America MDCCCXXXII-MDCCCXXXIII. MAP. 2 vols., 12mo, original cloth. London, 1836. $7.50

London: 1709. $150.00
A remarkably fine copy of the rare first edition.

- 662 LAWSON, JOHN. The History of Carolina .. and a Journal of a Thousand Miles, Travel'd thro' Several Nations of Indians. 12mo, half morocco, some pages uncut. London, Printed: DUBLIN, Reprinted by and for Christopher Dickson. 1737. $180.00

Excessively rare; we cannot trace the sale of any copy of this DUBLIN edition. It is practically UNKNOWN.

AN UNKNOWN BOOK ON NEW FRANCE

- 663 LE BRUN (LAURENCE.) Laurentii Le Brun Nannensis e Societ. Jesu Ecclesiastes Salomonis Paraphrasi Poetica explicatus. Small 12mo, original vellum enclosed in a morocco case with engraved title page. Rothomagi, Apud Joannem le Boulenger, 1650. $850.00

Pp. 199 to the end contain a series of Latin poems in two books, entitled "Franciados," dedicated to the Dauphin and to Louis XIV. The poems deal with Canadian life and customs, the first being entitled "Bella, & crudelitas Canadensium in captiuos"; the second, "Convivia & fames Canadensium"; the third, "Difficultas itinerum in Sylvis Canadensibus," etc., etc.

This is an exceedingly scarce Canadian item, which seems to have entirely escaped the attention of bibliographers. It is not mentioned in HARRISSE's "Nouvelle France," nor in GAGNON's Canadian Bibliography, and was apparently unknown to SABIN and RICH. The only reference which we find which throws any light on the subject is in the supplement to Brunet, where a work of similar character by this author is listed under date of 1661, with a note to the effect that "it is probably the first edition of this rare book, which HARRISSE omits in his Canadian Bibliography." This copy which we describe contains the Jesuit permit signed by Stephanus Charletus, dated 1648, which probably refers to the date of the first edition. It therefore antedates the book described by Brunet by 13 years.

- 664 LEE, ARTHUR. Extracts from a Letter written to the President of Congress . . in answer to a libel published in the Pennsylvania Gazette of the fifth of December, 1778, by Silas Deane, Esq. In which every charge or insinuation against him is fully and clearly refuted. 8vo, full morocco. Philadelphia: Bailey, 1780. $30.00

- 665 LEE, ARTHUR. A. L. S. 2 pp., 4to, dated Princeton, July 27, 1783. Signed also by Theodore Bland, Jr. $45.00

A letter regarding the Treaty of Peace and referring to Washington: "We do not know any colour of reason for the report you mention relative to our Commander-in-Chief. On the contrary we believe that his popularity, like his merit, has not suffered the smallest diminution," etc.

GENL. LEE GIVES AN ACCOUNT OF THE ARMY UNDER WASHINGTON AT CAMBRIDGE

- 666 LEE, CHARLES. Major-General. A. L. S. 2 pages, folio. Camp Hill, July 29, 1775. To Robt. Morris, with address. $185.00

An important historical letter, giving an account of the Army under Washington at Cambridge.

"I am very happy (as we all must be) that the Philadelphia affairs are in hands like yours. I wish to God the N. York were in the same. Why the Devil is not Tryon seiz'd. He is capable and I believe willing to do infinite mischief. Your compliments made me rather vain, as to zeal and industry I think I deserve em, for I work like ten post Horses, as a miserable defect of Congress imposes upon me eternal work in a Department to which I am a Stranger, the undoing what We found done, gives us more trouble than doing what was left undone, however We have contriv'd to make ourselves pretty secure, the Enemy seem to aim at the same object, upon the whole They act and I believe will act upon the defensive, unless they turn to a piratical war, if they attempt an attack on any part of our lines We shall I am apt to think make a considerable hole in their seven thousand men, which I suppose to be a pretty just estimate, five Deserters came over to us these last four and twenty hours, who all agree that they entertain at present no thoughts of attacking, but that they are hoping and expecting (but from whence they can't tell) reinforcements. One while from Canada, another from England, sometimes from Russia, this announces at least a lowness of pulse, if I were General Washington however, I shou'd jump at the offer of your third Battalion Riffle Men, inded I shou'd demand some entire Battalions from your Province, and shou'd propose disbanding the same number of Battalions of Massachusetts, not but the Private Men are admirable, and the young Officers tolerable, but They have in fact engaged far more than They can perform, eight thousand are full as much as They can Complete. Connecticut, N. Hampshire cou'd furnish many more than is settled by the Congress. Moiland is come up to us, but unfortunately he's jungled his time after some intrigue (for He call's every Woman who has a body to her Shift an intriguer) Until my two aide de Campships are filled up, I wish you wou'd recommend him to the Members of the Continental Congress with whom you are acquainted for some provision."

GENL. LEE ON THE INVASION OF CANADA BY MONTGOMERY AND ARNOLD

667 LEE, CHARLES. A. L. S. 3 pages, folio. Camp on Winter Hill, Dec. 9 (1775). To Robt. Morris. $185.00

An important historical letter mentioning the invasion of Canada by Montgomery and Arnold, and the effect it will have on Great Britain, also reviews the prospects of the Continental Army getting possession of Boston.

"I have just receiv'd the agreeable news that my purchase is complete, and on terms more grateful than I expected. I once more most earnestly thank you for your activity and zeal to serve me, if I prove capable to for get the obligations I have to you for a single instant, I shou'd deserve all the abuse which I find I am loaded with in letters intercepted and some of the public papers, but thank heaven my enemies are the Enemies of virtue and liberty. We now my Friend sail triumphantly before the Wind, the reduction of Canada, for I suppose it is reduced, gives the Coup de grace to the hellish junto. Montgomery and Arnold deserve statues of gold, and I hope the Congress will erect em. We were some time apprehensive of losing every thing from the backwardness of the men in enlisting, it is supposed that the discarded Officers labored to render the Soldiers disaffected; but the Men really have public spirit, and recruiting goes on most swimmingly. I dare say We shall have an excellent Army before Spring, if We had but powder, Boston wou'd be ours. I think inevitably this Winter, the Ministerialists if we may believe the concurrent accounts of Deserters and others who have broken their Prison, are in a most distressfull situation, and live in mortal apprehensiveness of being daily attack'd or burnt to ashes, but We have as yet not the necessary materials, for God's sake what was the meaning, or on what principle did your Assembly lay that strange injunction on their delegates on the subject of Independence. I do not find that the question was ever agitated, the injunction was therefore ill tim'd and impolitic to say no worse of it. It cannot be attended with any good consequences and may have many bad ones. It indirectly confirms the charge against America of aiming at throwing of all connexion with the parent country, a charge trump'd up by the Creatures of Administration, to prejudice the People at home against you, this allegation seem'd to have no foundation until the Assembly of Pennsylvania had furnish'd one, in fact it appears to me that your Province is most unfairly and inadequately represented, that it must be corrected and render'd more competent. tho I know it is pragmatical and impudent for an Alien to interfere in the legislation of a Country, if the People are contented with it. I cannot help wishing that your back counties may be rous'd into some Melioration of what I esteem so imperfect. I have written a parting letter to my friend Burgoyne, who is on the point of sailing for England. You shall have a copy by the next post, Gates who is pleas'd to think it has great merit, sends one tomorrow to Franklin, have you done anything about my three thousand pounds. Notwithstanding the late stuff call'd a proclamation I am apt to believe the bills will be accepted, for a gentleman here lately from England who was present when it was read at the Royal Exchange makes very light of it. He says it was hiss'd, groan'd and universally despis'd, in short I must report that I believe the day is ours, the Canadian business must overset the whole system."

GENL. LEE WANTS THE COLONIES TO DECLARE THEIR INDEPENDENCE

668 LEE, CHARLES. A. L. S. 4 pages, 4to. Stamford, Jan. 23, 1776. To Robt. Morris, with address. $235.00

A very important letter, giving his views of the colonies declaring themselves independent, and mentions that he is on his way to New York to defend it against invasion.

"I am in my way to N. York to anticipate the Enemy whom We apprehend have an immediate intention on the Place. I have written a long and indeed presumptuous letter to the Congress. I beg you will be one of my Advocates if it is taken in this light. nothing but zeal shoud' have forced me upon it, but their complacency to the Provincial Congress will I am afraid be in the end fatal. NEW YORK WILL BE ONE DAY OR OTHER THE MINISTRIES. THEY PLAY FAST AND LOOSE WITH YOU IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO GIVE YOU AN AIR OF EXTREME RIDICULE. YOUR ASSEMBLY'S INJUNCTION WITH RESPECT TO INDEPENDENCE APPEARS EVERY TIME I CONSIDER 'EM MORE NON-SENSICAL FOOLISH AND ABOMINABLE, IT OPERATES DIRECTLY OPPOSITE TO SOUND POLICY, YOU OUGHT TO PERSUADE THE PEOPLE AT HOME THAT THE DAMN'D KING AND HIS DAMN'D MINISTRY NEVER HAD THE LEAST GROUND FOR THEIR ASSERTIONS THAT YOU AIM AT INDEPENDENCE. You ought to suffer the two branches of the house of Bourbon to flatter themselves that separation is your object, that They might be more inclined to assist you with all your necessary wants, instead of which these blessed injunctions have given a solid-ground to the assertions of the King and Ministry which before they were destitute of, and at the same time render France and Spain shy of assisting you, by the Heavenly God if you do not act more decisively We shall be ruin'd, decision, decision ou't to be our word, are We at war or are We not, are We at War with the King, or with whom are We at War, do not the People of England, tho' not from zeal, but from want of spirit support the Tyrant? Why are We eternally whining about a connexion with these deprav'd People? in short as they now suffer their Parliament without tearing em to pieces. to support the Tyrant, they cannot be consider'd as able or worthy of remaining the presiding part of the Empire, before the late speech and address of thanks, I had some hope, but since their appearance I confess I think the knot is cut. You must no longer hobble on one high shoe, and one low. When you have conquer'd I think you may then with more safety glory and advantage return to your former state of relation."

GENL. LEE ASKS WHY CONGRESS DOES NOT
DECLARE INDEPENDENCE, AND MENTIONS
THE CONDITION OF HIS ARMY IN VIRGINIA

- 669 LEE, CHARLES. A. L. S. 6 pages, 4to. Williamsburg, April 10, 1776. To Robt. Morris, with address. $180.00

An important letter giving an account of the condition and situation of the Army under his command in Virginia, and concludes by asking why Congress does not declare Independence.

"I am here in a damm'd whimsical situation as I expected, from the uncertainty of the Enemys intentions and the nature of the country, being intersected with numerous Navigable Waters, from the superior advantage They have over us in being wing'd with canvas, from the number of slaves, from their being no one decided capital object to draw their force to a point, I say, from all these circumstances, I know not where to turn, where to fix myself, I am like a Dog in a dancing school, I may make a very shabby figure without any real demerits, in short I can only act by surmise and I may surmise wrong. I may be in the North, when as Richard the third says, I shou'd serve my Sovereign in the West. God extricate me out of the scrape with honor to myself and, health to the community, the Troops I have seen here, are in general very fine men. and compleat in numbers, the Officers, I believe are good, but except the Riflers, We are horribly arm'd, however such as We are, I shall make no scruple of offering battle to an equal number of the Enemy, and I really believe I shall beat em. * * * If they carry on a piratical War, and can raise an insurrection of Negroes, We must apply for some Battalions to your Middle Colonies, and indeed I cou'd wish you cou'd spare us three or four immediately, which as Boston is now evacuated I shou'd think very practicable, for the Army which was employ'd in the blockade of that place have now their arms at liberty. They are numerous enough both for the defense of N. York, the reinforcement of Canada, consequently Pennsylvania is not under the necessity of detaching any part of her force for these two purposes. She may of course give her attention to Virginia. We have not more than five thousand Troops, the Minute Men and Militia have really no arms at all, seven Battalions are expected to attack us, an infinite number of Slaves are to be watch'd over, I leave you to judge if this force is adequate, besides We may be diverted by a false attack on N. Carolina. We may perhaps march to its defense and in our absence the Enemy who are arm'd with wings appear in the heart of the Province * * * for God's sake why does your Congress continue (dallying) in this horrible nonsensical manner? Why not at once take the step you must take soon? I consider every days delay as the loss at least of one hundred thousand pounds in money, and the blood of an hundred men. What can you mean by it? You will force at last the people to attempt it without you, which must produce a noble Anarchy."

GENL. LEE A PRISONER WITH THE BRITISH REGRETS THAT CONGRESS WILL NOT MEET THE COMMITTEE FROM LORD HOWE

- 670 LEE, CHARLES. A. L. S. 2 pages, 4to. New York, April 4, 1777. To Robt. Morris, with address. $175.00
Written while he was a prisoner in the hands of the British in New York.

"I have receiv'd your most friendly letter and the bills which if not paid, shall be deposited in the manner you direct. that of £50. has been already paid by Mr Chamier. it is much to be lamented for my own sake as well as that of the Public that the Congress have not thought proper to comply with my request, as their Persons wou'd have indubitably been safe, it could not possibly have been attended with any bad consequences and might with good ones, I never before the receipt of your letter heard a syllable of my being sent to England, and as the intentions of Lord and General Howe are kept remarkably secret, I imagine Your Informant could only advise you of this from conjecture, but as it possibly may happen, my anxiety for having my Servant with me and some cloaths is greater. I therefore request, My Dr Friend, that you will forward him to me immediately, if his health permits, his establishment hereafter depends on his compliance."

- 671 LEE, CHARLES. Facts tending to Prove that General Lee was never absent from this Country . . During the years, 1767 . . 1772, and that he was the Author of Junius, by Thomas Girdlestone, M.D. ENGRAVED FRONTISPIECE. 8vo, original boards, uncut. London: 1813. $10.00

SAMUEL LEE'S JOY OF FAITH, BOSTON, 1687

- 685 LEE, SAMUEL. The Joy of Faith. Or a Treatise opening the true Nature of Faith. 12mo, old calf. Boston: Printed by Samuel Green, 1687. $85.00

VERY RARE EARLY BOSTON IMPRINT.

- 686 LEGARD, A. B. Colorado. 12mo, boards. London, 1872. $50.00

Very rare. Printed for private circulation, the author, in his preface, asks "those possessing copies not to part with them, as for obvious reasons, he would not like the book to get into the hands of those with whom he is unacquainted." The author was an Englishman and his "obvious reasons" are indeed apparent on reading the book, for his criticisms are by no means always favorable to Americans.

THE FINEST COPY KNOWN OF THE RAREST BOOK ON NEW ENGLAND

698 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A. L. S. 1 p., 4to, Springfield, Ill., July 28, 1849, to Hon. J. M. Clayton (Sec'y of State). Addressed and franked. $1500.00

"Dear Sir:

It is with some hesitation I presume to address you this letter—and yet I wish not only you, but the whole cabinet, and the President too, would consider the subject matter of it—My BEING AMONG THE PEOPLE while you and they are not, will excuse the apparent presumption—It is understood that the President at first adopted, as a general rule, to throw the responsibility of the appointments upon the respective Departments; and that such rule is adhered to and practised upon. This course I at first thought proper; and, of course, I am not now complaining of it. Still I am disappointed with the effect of it on the public mind. It is fixing for the President the unjust and ruinous character of being a mere man of straw. This must be arrested, or it will damn us all inevitably. It is said Gen. Taylor and his officers held a council of war, at Palo Alto (I believe); and that he then fought the battle against unanimous opinion of those officers—This fact (no matter whether rightfully or wrongfully) gives him more popularity than ten thousand submissions, however really wise and magnanimous those submissions may be. The appointments need be no better than they have been, but the public must be brought to understand, that they are the President's appointments. He must occasionally say, or seem to say, 'by the Eternal,' 'I take the responsibility'—Those phrases were the 'Samson's locks' of Gen. Jackson, and we dare not disregard the lessons of experience.

Your Ob't Sev't

A. LINCOLN."

LINCOLN ON DISUNION AND ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

- 699 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Original Autograph Manuscript, 11¼ pages, folio, unsigned. Endorsed by Lyman Trumbull, in pencil, at head "Furnished by Mr. Lincoln & copied into my remarks, to be read at the Celebration at Springfield, Ill., Nov. 20, 1860." $950.00

The occasion was a meeting in celebration of the election of Lincoln and Hamlin. Speeches were made by Trumbull, Palmer and Yates. Lincoln desired that the influence of this public meeting should be peaceful and instead of speaking as he had been urged to, on the growing agitation for disunion in the South, he wrote the above manuscript and asked Trumbull to embody it in his speech. We quote the closing portion: "Disunionists per se, are now in hot haste to get out of the Union, precisely because they perceive they cannot, much longer, maintain an apprehension among the Southern people that their homes, and firesides, and lives, are to be endangered by the action of the Federal Government. With such "Now, or never" is the maxim—I am rather glad of this military preparation in the South—It will enable the people the more easily to suppress any uprisings there, which their misrepresentations of purposes may have encouraged."

- 700 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A. L. S. 1 page, 12mo, Executive Mansion, Washington. Oct. 23, 1862. To the Surgeon-General. $175.00

Fine specimen.

"Is a hospital chaplain needed at Church & Odd Fellow's Hall, Navy Yard, Washington? Please answer on this sheet below." The Surgeon-General's answer is written on the back.

THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF LINCOLN'S OWN
CONCEPTION OF A MILITARY CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE ARMIES OF THE CONFEDERACY

- 701 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Original Memorandum of a Plan of Campaign against the Confederate Army, written entirely by Abraham Lincoln in September, 1861. In this wonderful document it is shown that Lincoln had considerable knowledge of military tactics and the art of war. Three folio pages, green morocco extra. $5000.00

Nearly all the great generals who served in the Civil War are mentioned by Lincoln in this superb manuscript. It is of the highest historical importance and value.

THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF LINCOLN'S
BALTIMORE ADDRESS, PROBABLY THE FINEST
LINCOLN MANUSCRIPT THAT CAN EVER BE OFFERED FOR SALE

- 702 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. The celebrated Speech entirely in Lincoln's Autograph, made at Baltimore, April 18, 1864, and known as the famous "Baltimore Address." Next to the Gettysburg Address it is probably the finest speech made by the martyr President. Three pages, folio, green morocco extra. $7500.00

An item of superlative importance. While thousands of Lincoln's letters are known, only a very few of his original manuscripts have been offered for sale.

- 703 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. The President, the People and the War. A Thanksgiving Discourse by Horatio Stebbins. 8vo, printed wrappers. San Francisco, 1864. $42.50

Major Lambert was unable to secure this excessively rare Lincoln oration in thirty years of collecting. Not in Fish or any bibliography!

- 704 LINCOLN, BENJAMIN. General. L. S. With autograph postscript. 4 pp., 4to. War Office, September 10, 1782. To General Greene. $27.50

Laudatory of the troops under General Greene, hopes the period is now arrived when their sufferings will cease—provision for arrangements should the enemy abandon that district.

"This morning arrived an armed ship from Amsterdam with cloathing on board for the Army, under her convoy sailed two brigs loaded with cloathing also they are hourly expected," etc.

- 766 MAURY, DABNEY H. A. L. S. 14 pages, 8vo. New Orleans, June 1, 1865. To Genl. Beauregard. $87.50

A long and interesting letter at the close of the war, giving a detailed history of his command around Mobile, its evacuation, and the reason thereof—4,000 against 40,000 men. He concludes as follows:

"I now go, like so many of us who staked everything on this cause, to commence anew my life. I have not a cent in the world except what is left of $200, for which I sold my only home, and I am endeavouring to take my wife and little children to her Fathers home in Virginia. There I shall go to seek my fortune, if I be permitted to go at large or go unchanged. * * * General we have been beaten by our unpardonable want of discipline. I think it would have been instructive and profitable for our good Chief Magistrate to have seen occasionally the yankee Troops as they appear here in New Orleans and in Mobile and every where. How is it that we have with our democratic mobbish armies so long beaten such soldiers? Ah! regrets are vain, but may not be unprofitable. If I do not meet you again, good bye, accept my thanks for your kindness to me. * * * Burnett was killed in Spanish Fort, he was almost the best soldier in our army, and a purer gentleman never lived."

- 767 MAURY, DABNEY H. Military Telegrams from Mobile and Macon, Nov. and Dec., 1864. To Genl. Beauregard. 40 pieces. $35.00
Relative to the defence of Mobile.

- 768 MAXIMILIAN, PRINCE OF NEUWIED. Travels in Brazil, in 1815, 1816, and 1817. Translated from the German and ILLUSTRATED WITH ENGRAVINGS. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. London, 1825. $5.50

- 783 MILITIA. Certain Acts of the Commonwealth of Virginia, For regulating the Militia; and of the Congress of the United States, more effectually to provide for the National Defence, by establishing an uniform Militia throughout the United States. 8vo, original paper covers. Richmond, Augustine Davis, [1793]. $45.00

ONE OF THE EARLIEST MILITARY MANUALS PUBLISHED IN AMERICA

- 784 MILITARY. WEBB, LIEUTENANT. A Military Treatise on the Appointments of the Army, Containing many useful Hints, not touched upon before by any Author; Proposing some new Regulations in the Army, which will be particularly useful in carrying on the War in North-America, together with a Short Treatise on Military Honors. By Lieutenant Webb, of His Majesty's Forty-eighth Regiment. PORTRAIT AND PLATES. 8vo, full morocco, gilt, dentelle borders, gilt edges, by Tout. Philadelphia: Printed by W. Dunlap, 1759. $160.00

Very rare. The author, who lost an eye at the Siege of Quebec, is better known as one of the earliest Methodist Preachers in America, than as a soldier, or writer on Military Subjects. Brinley possessed a copy published in 1769, ten years later than the above, but no copy of this, the first edition, can be traced at auction.

- 785 MILITIA. A Bill to provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the Militia of the United States. 12mo, unbound, uncut. Hanover, 1795. $5.00

ONE OF THE RAREST WESTERN BOOKS

THE BEST COLONIAL MAP OF NORTHERN AMERICA

- 791 MITCHELL, JOHN. A Map of the British and French Dominions in North America. By John Mitchell. London: Published by the Author, 1755. On eight large sheets. $125.00

A remarkably fine copy of the rare first issue of Mitchell's map.

- 792 [MITCHILL, SAMUEL T.] A Tour through Part of Virginia in the Summer of 1808 . . 8vo, entirely uncut. New York: 1809. $7.50

A very rare pamphlet describing Harper's Ferry, the Natural Bridge. Weir's Cave, Monticello, etc. This is an original work of travel in America and is of great historical value. It is extremely rare.

- 793 MONETTE, J. W. History of the Discovery and Settlement of the Valley of the Mississippi. MAPS. 2 volumes, 8vo, old calf. New York: 1846. $22.50

The standard book on the subject.

- 794 MONIS, JUDAH. Discourse Had in the College-Hall at Cambridge, March 27, 1722. Before the Baptism of Judah Monis. By Benj. Colman, to which are added Three Discourses written by Mr. Monis himself, The Truth, The Whole Truth and Nothing but the Truth. One of which was deliver'd by him at his Baptism. 4 parts, 12mo, unbound. Boston, Daniel Henchman, 1722. $35.00

Very rare. "The Truth" has a preface by Increase Mather giving some account of Jews converted to Christianity, he ends by saying: "God Grant that he (who is the first Jew that ever I knew Converted in New England) may prove a blessing unto many, and especially to some of his own Nation."

THE REMARKABLE LETTER IN WHICH JAMES MONROE INVITES ALEXANDER HAMILTON TO THE FIELD OF HONOR

- 795 MONROE, JAMES. President of the U. S. A. L. S. 4to, 2 pages. Albemarle, Dec. 7, 1797. To Alexander Hamilton. A letter which shows the extreme bitterness of feeling existing between Hamilton and Monroe, growing out of the part taken by the latter in promoting an investigation of Hamilton's relations with Mrs. Reynolds, and in assailing his integrity as Secretary of the treasury. He then challenged Hamilton to fight a duel. $550.00

"I requested Col. Burr to inform you, immediately after the receipt of yours of Aug. 9th, that I was not satisfied with the explanation given by it of y'r preceding one of the 4th. . . . In my judgment you ought either to have been satisfied with the explanations which I gave you upon the subject to which those letters referred or to have invited me to the field. There seemed to be no intermediate ground for a man of honor to take: yet you found one. The explanations I gave you on that subject were liberal. . . . Still it was not my intention to invite or even provoke a personal interview, because I had no motive for so doing, and many, especially at the time, for avoiding it. The idea was suggested by certain passages in yours having that tendency, to which I replied if you invited I sho'd accept it. But by this I did not mean to become an aggressor, nor was it justly inferrable. It was however not my intention to decline that issue if sought by you in any mode whatever. . . . I have therefore requested _____ to communicate with you further on the subject of that letter and empowered him in case you meant it as such to give you my answer to it and otherwise arrange the affair for the interview thus invited on your part."

IT IS A WONDERFUL COINCIDENCE THAT THE BEARER OF THIS CHALLENGE, AARON BURR WAS TO BE THE ONE FATED TO KILL HAMILTON IN THE FAMOUS DUEL WHICH TOOK PLACE JUST SEVEN YEARS AFTER THIS INCIDENT.

- 796 MONROE, JAMES. Memoir . . . relating to his unsettled Claims upon the People and Government of the United States. 8vo, unbound. Charlottesville, Va., 1828. $5.00

AUTOGRAPH LETTERS OF THE FINANCIER OF THE REVOLUTION

- 807 MORRIS, ROBERT. A. L. S. 3 pages, 4to. Philadelphia, June 18, 1779. To Committee of Complaints. $120.00

His draft of his letter refusing to give any information about flour he had purchased for "his most Christian Majesty," as he considered himself as merely an employee, and had no right to divulge the business of his employer. There had been a meeting in the State House yard, at which Morris was accused of speculating in the bread stuffs of the country, and this is his first answer to these accusations.

"I am honored with a letter from your Sec'y pro. tempore Mr. Alex Boyd, excusing my personal Attendance on the Committee but requesting me to lay before you at 10 O'clock tomorrow fore-noon or sooner if Convenient, 'The original Instruction or Agreements by Virtue whereof, I am purchasing for his Most Christian Majestys Agent, an account of the Quantities so purchased and Contracted for, & information by what Conveyance & to what places or Stores said flour is Collected, and from what places in the Country it has been & is now brought.'"

See also under Thomas Paine.

- 808 MORRIS, ROBERT. A. L. 11 pages, folio. $135.00

A rough draft of his address to the citizens of Pennsylvania, caused by accusations being made against his character in the office of treasurer, which he was then filling. It seems that there was a meeting held by some citizens in the yard of the State House at which time there were accusations made that Mr. Morris was speculating in the food-stuffs of the country, and this was taken up by Congress, and a committee appointed, consisting of Tom Paine, Chas. Willson Peale, and several others, to investigate the affair. In this address Mr. Morris proves his innocence, and also proves that the grounds for the people's suspicion was caused by him purchasing supplies for the King of France.

See also under Thomas Paine.

- 809 MORRIS, ROBERT. A. L. S. with initials, 4 pages, 4to. Philadelphia, March 29, 1779. To President Jos. Reed. $50.00

His draft of his letter to Jos. Reed denying a fancied affront to him and laying stress on his services to his country.

- 837 NEW JERSEY. Plea and Answer of William, Earl of Stirling and others, Proprietors of East New Jersey, to John Hunt's Bill in Chancery. Folio, original covers in cloth case. Pp. 38, (10), covers containing page of errata in front and Hunt against Stirling on the back. New York, John Holt, 1770. $325.00

Very rare in such fine condition, and probably unique with the page of errata.

- 838 NEW JERSEY. The Grants, Concessions, and Original Constitutions of the Province of New Jersey. By Aaron Leaming and Jacob Spicer. 8vo, old calf, Philadelphia. W. Bradford, n. d. [1758.] $37.50

The largest work issued from the press of William Bradford.

- 839 NEW JERSEY. A Concise View of the Controversy between the Proprietors of East and West Jersey. 12mo, sewed, uncut. Philadelphia, Hall and Sellers, 1785. $35.00 Relates to the Boundary Dispute.

- 840 NEW JERSEY. The Public Laws of New Jersey, since Paterson's Revision, with a Concise Index and Occasional References Compiled and Printed by James J. Wilson. 12mo, half morocco. Trenton, 1805. $135.00

Isaac Mickle's copy with autograph on title.

Of excessive rarity, we cannot trace the sale of another copy.

- 841 NEW ORLEANS. Plan of the City and Suburbs of New Orleans from an actual Survey made in 1815 by I. Tanesse. 23 1/8 x 15 3/4 inches. Published by Charles Del Vecchio of New York, April 29, 1817 and by P. Maspero of New Orleans. $35.00

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN OF ONE OF THE EARLIEST NEWPORT IMPRINTS

- 841a NEWPORT ALMANAC. Leed's 1731. The American Almanac For the Year of Christian Account, 1731. 12mo, sewed, in a full morocco solander case. Printed for, and Sold by Daniel Ayrault and Edward Nearegreas at Newport, 1731. $565.00

THE ONLY KNOWN COPY OF ONE OF THE EARLIEST ALMANACS PUBLISHED IN RHODE ISLAND. The Library of Congress possesses an almanac printed in Newport in 1728, also the only known example of which Mr. George Parker Winship has issued an attractive reprint. Daniel Ayrault and Edward Nearegreas were booksellers in Newport early in the Eighteenth Century and this is one of the few known examples with their imprint. This is one of the most desirable Newport and Rhode Island items that has ever been offered for sale. A Newport almanac brought $525.00 at auction recently.

Ll. S. of the various Royal Governors; Indian Deeds; and much other material of the utmost value and importance. Bound in blue crushed levant morocco by Rivière, accompanied by 14 rare maps, views and portraits. $12,500.00

Full particulars upon application.

ONE OF THE RAREST BOOKS ON EARLY NEW YORK AND THE FIRST BOOK IN ENGLISH
DEALING SOLELY WITH THE PROVINCE

- 843 NEW YORK. The Second Part of the Tragedy of Amboyna: or, a True Relation of a Most Bloody, Treacherous, and Cruel Design of the Dutch in the New Netherlands in America. Small 4to, boards, leather back, in red levant solander case. London. Printed for Thomas Matthews, 1653. $3,500.00

THE EARLIEST BOOK IN ENGLISH RELATING SOLELY TO NEW YORK.

ONLY FOUR COPIES KNOWN.

1. Mr. Huntington's copy from the Murphy-Kalbfleisch-Church collections.

2. The British Museum copy.

3. Mr. Henry F. De Puy's copy.

4. The present copy.

In the introduction to the facsimile made by Mr. De Puy and described below the story of this important tract is entertainingly told.

- 844 NEW YORK. The Second Part of the Tragedy of Amboyna . . . 8vo, boards, uncut. First Printed at London, 1653 and Reprinted at New York, 1915. $3.75

Facsimile reproduction. Only 95 copies privately printed for Mr. Henry F. DePuy, with an introduction by this eminent scholar and collector.

- 845 NEW YORK. Sommiere Amteyckeninge ende Deductie ingestelt By de Gedeputeerden vande Ho: Mog: Heeren Staten Generael der Vereenighde Nederlanden op de lest ingrediende Memorie Van den Heere George Downing . . . Small 4to, half morocco. Graven-Hage 1665. $50.00

Remarks and statements regarding the Dutch and English War, the Dutch title to New Netherlands and matters relating to the surrender of New Netherlands to the English. The "Memorie van de Heere George Downing," has separate title and pagination.

AN UNKNOWN NEW YORK BOOK AND AN EARLY
ACCOUNT OF TRAVELS IN AMERICA

- 846 NEW YORK. God's Mighty Power Magnified as Manifested and Revealed to his Faithful Handmaid Joan Vokins, who departed this Life the 22nd of the 5th Month, 1690. 12mo, polished calf, gilt edges. London: Printed for Thomas Northcott, 1691. $565.00

Damn rare! After a thorough search we have failed to trace another copy of this important and unknown volume of EARLY AMERICAN TRAVEL. The author was a Quaker preacher and she gives a minute account of her peregrinations. She arrived in New York on March 3, 1680, and after remaining several months she journeyed to Rhode Island and then to East Jersey and Pennsylvania, etc. There is a letter "For Friends at Gravesend in Long Island" and another "Epistle to Friends of New York and there-away."

PRINTED BY WILLIAM BRADFORD

847 NEW YORK. An Ordinance for Regulating and Establishing Fees, By his Excellency Robert Hunter. Small folio, unbound, in half levant morocco, slip case. [New York: William Bradford, 1710.] Pp. 12. $85.00

848 ANOTHER COPY of this ordinance, the 20-page issue. $85.00

849 NEW YORK. An Ordinance for Regulating the Recording of Deeds and other Writings.. By his Excellency William Burnet. Small folio, unbound, in half levant slip case. [New York: William Bradford, 1723.] Pp. 2. $85.00

850 NEW YORK. Acts of Assembly Passed from 1691 to 1725. Folio, half blue morocco. New York: William Bradford, 1726. $250.00

A fine copy of this Bradford revision, with three very rare ordinances added.

851 NEW YORK. Lex Parliamentaria: Or, a Treatise of the Law and Custom of the Parliaments of England. By G. P. 12mo, original sheep in half morocco slip case. New York: William Bradford, 1716. $65.00

A copy, not so fine, sold at auction in December, 1917, for $100.00.

PRINTED BY ZENGER

852 NEW YORK. The Complaint of James Alexander and William Smith to the Committee of the General Assembly of the Colony of New York, etc. Small folio, unbound, uncut, in half morocco case. [New York: John Peter Zenger, 1735]. Pp. 19. $175.00

Very rare, especially in such pristine uncut condition.

LIVINGSTON'S RARE NEWSPAPER

853 NEW YORK. THE INDEPENDENT REFLECTOR. From Nov. 30, 1752 (No. 1) to Nov. 22, 1753 (No. 52). All published. Folio, original boards. New York: Printed by J. Parker, 1752-3. $240.00

By William Livingston. Very rare, as an effort was made at the time to suppress it. James Parker refused to print it after the first year, and no other printer had the courage to continue it. It is an attack against various abuses, and it is no wonder it was issued without disclosing the author! Collation: pp. 1-212.

THE FIRST IDEA OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE

854 NEW YORK. A General Idea of the College of Mirania, with a Sketch of the Method of teaching Science and Religion, in the several Classes, and Some Account of its Rise,

On the opening of Columbia College, New York. The verses spoken at the opening appear on pp. 5-7. A copy sold at auction for $140.00 in 1899.

PROBABLY UNIQUE

- 855 NEW YORK. List of His Majesty's Land Forces in North America, with The Rank of the Officers in the Regiment and Army. Carefully corrected to April, 1761. 8vo, original paper covers, in a half levant morocco slip case. New York: Printed by JAMES PARKER AND COMPANY; for JAMES RIVINGTON, Bookseller and Stationer, over against the Golden Key in Hanover Square, 1761. $325.00

WE CANNOT TRACE THE EXISTENCE OF ANY OTHER COPY. Evans mentions one printed in New York by Hugh Gaine, but does not know of the above. On the inside of the front cover is the list of the staff officers serving in North America. This was Robert Melville's copy with his autograph.

ONE OF THE RAREST BOUNDARY DISPUTE
PAMPHLETS

- 856 NEW YORK-MASSACHUSETTS. A Conference Between the Commissaries of MASSACHUSETTS BAY and the Commissaries of NEW YORK at New Haven in the Colony of Connecticut, 1767. Quarto, sewed, enclosed in a red morocco slip case. Boston: Richard Draper, 1768. $325.00

This is the extremely rare issue containing the Appendix. Collation: "Conference," etc., pp. 1-28; Appendix, "Assembly-Chamber, City of New York, Nov. 27, 1767," pp. 1-10. See also under Thomas Hutchinson, "The Case of the Provinces of Massachusetts Bay and New York Respecting the Boundary Line," Boston, 1764.

THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT COMMISSION FOR SETTLING THE BOUNDARY LINE BETWEEN NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY.

- 857 NEW YORK. The Original Exemplification of a Commission from King George the Third, granting authority for certain commissioners to settle the boundary in dispute between the Province of New York and New Jersey. Date July 20, 1769. A closely-written Document on Parchment, signed by Gov. Henry Moore, of New York, and the Commissioners of New York and New Jersey. Large folio, with fine impression of the Great Seal of New York. $1200.00

This highly important historical Document is really the commission for settling the boundary dispute between New York and New Jersey, and appointing as commissioners John Temple, Surveyor General of Customs, for the Northern District of America; Peter Randolph, Surveyor General for the Southern District of America, and Chas. Stewart, Surveyor General of Customs for the District of Quebec; Andrew Elliott, Receiver General for Quit Rents in the Province of New York; Chambers Russell, Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty for the Province of Massachusetts Bay; Chas. Morris, Surveyor of Lands, and one of the Council for the Province of Nova Scotia; Payton Randolph, Surveyor General of Lands for the Northern District of America; William De Brahm, Surveyor General for the Southern District of America; Andrew Oliver, Secretary of the Province of Massachusetts Bay; Charles Morris, Surveyor of Lands and one of the Council for the Province of Nova Scotia; Samuel Holland, Attorney General and one of the Council for the Province of Virginia; Benjamin Franklin, of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Jared Ingersoll, of the colony of Connecticut. The Document is Signed by Henry Moore, Governor of New York, at Fort George, July 20, in the eighth year of the Reign of George III. (1769), and is attested to by Clarke, of the Secretary's Office. It is also endorsed on the back at the end of a notice of the first meeting, by Henry Holland, William Bayard, Benj. Kissam, Jno. Morin Scott, four of the Agents appointed by the Province of New York, and John Stevens, Walter Rutherford, James Parker and Henry Cuyler, four of the Agents appointed by the province of New Jersey. The first meeting was held at New York, July 18, 1769.

A similar document sold in the Crane Sale, in 1913, for $2600.00.

- 858 NEW YORK. The Distress'd Pair, or the Affecting History of Mr. and Mrs. Benbrooke, of the city of NEW YORK in America. 12mo, half morocco. London: Printed in the year, 1775. $35.00

A rare and curious tale of counterfeiting in Colonial New York.

- 859 NEW YORK. The Deed of Settlement of the Mutual Insurance Company, for INSURING HOUSES FROM LOSS BY FIRE IN NEW YORK. Vignette, 4to, unbound, in cloth case. New York: Printed by William Norton, 1787. $285.00

Very rare. The engraving on the title is by Maverick and represents a fire engine in action. Unknown to Sabin. Mentioned by Evans, who does not locate a copy. Apparently only one other copy sold at public auction.

NEW YORK REFUSES TO ACCEPT THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

One of the Greatest New York Documents.

- 860 NEW YORK. CLINTON, GEORGE. Brev.-Maj. Genl. in the Revolutionary War. L. S. 3 pages, 4to. In Convention at Poughkeepsie, State of New York, July 26, 1788. To the Governor of South Carolina. $650.00

A wonderful historical letter giving New York's reason for not wishing to sign the Federal Constitution, and asking South Carolina, with the other States, to join them in taking effectual measures for calling another Convention for the purpose of amending the Constitution.

"We, the members of the Convention of this State, have deliberately and maturely considered the Constitution proposed for the United States. Several articles in it appear so exceptionable to a majority of us that nothing but the fullest confidence of obtaining a Revision of them by a General Convention, and an invincible Reluctance to separating from our Sister States, could have prevailed upon a sufficient number to ratify it, without stipulating for previous Amendments, we all unite in opinion that such a Revision will be necessary to recommend it to the Approbation and Support of a numerous body of our Constituents, we observe that Amendments have been proposed, and are anxiously desired by several of the States as well as by this, and we think it of great Importance that effectual Measures be immediately taken for calling a Convention to meet at a period not far remote, for we are convinced that the Apprehensions and discontents which these Articles occasion, cannot be removed or allayed, unless an Act to provide for it, be among the first that shall be passed by the new Congress," &c. SIGNED BY GEO. CLINTON, AS PRESIDENT OF THE CONVENTION.

- 861 NEW YORK. The Debates and Proceedings of the Convention of the State of New York, assembled at Poughkeepsie on the 17th June, 1788. ONE OF THE RAREST AMERICAN MAPS

- 903 OHIO. Map of the Fire Land (of Ohio) From Actual Survey of Almon Ruggles. Engraved by Amos Doolittle [1806] Folio. $265.00

One of two known copies, the other being in the Western Reserve Historical Society at Cleveland. This map was unknown to Stauffer, who in his American Engravers gives a list of the engravings of Doolittle but omits the above. It is not in the splendid collection of maps in the Library of Congress. The above is particularly valuable, as the owners of the various lots are indicated on the map in manuscript, which makes this copy UNIQUE. The map includes the lands belonging to the CONNECTICUT LAND COMPANY and the Indian claims as well.

PAINE GIVES A FULL ACCOUNT OF HIS LIFE AND SERVICES IN AMERICA AND MENTIONS HIS FINANCIAL DISTRESS
THE MOST IMPORTANT PAINE LETTER EVER
OFFERED FOR SALE

912 PAINE, THOMAS. Author of "The Rights of Man" and "Common Sense." A most Ardent Patriot, who contributed much towards the Success of the Revolution, and so acknowledged by Washington. A. L. S. 4 pages, large folio. Philadelphia, Feb. 20, 1782. To Robert Morris, with address.

An important letter giving a full account of his life in the service of America, and mentioning his financial distress prior to his mission to France. $575.00

"It is upwards of seven years since I came to America and above six since I published COMMON SENSE. My situation from the time of my becoming a public man has been exceedingly inconvenient, and nothing but the purest attachment to, and a natural affection for a Cause which I knew and felt to be right, and in which I found I could be usefull, could have held me so long and so invariably under such difficult circumstances; yet these I have carefully and constantly concealed because it could answer no service to the interest of America to represent her under the Character of ingratitude. I am sensible that he who means to do mankind a real service must set down with the determination of putting up, and bearing with all their faults, follies, prejudices and mistakes until he can convince them that he is right, and that his object is a general good, and I am persuaded, from your own experience, that you are of the same opinion.

WE HAVE NOW GOT RID OF TWO TRAITORS ARNOLD AND DEANE. and tho' the event, so far as respects the latter, has proved me right, it has at the same time found nobody wrong, that they were alone in their Crimes every one must see, and thus, the mischief of their secret defection being remedied in their detection, the Minds, put asunder, by their contrivance, unite with ease, confidence and satisfaction.

GENERAL WASHINGTON is the only person (except Col. Laurens) to whom I fully and unreservedly communicated my situation, and I was under a pressing necessity of doing it, I found my mind burthened and my situation difficult, and as sincerely as I wished the prosperity of a just Cause. I had it no longer in my power to go on as I had done. My reason for mentioning it to him in preference to any other, was, because his judgment or his friendship in the case, would, and must also be supposed to operate free and clear from himself, under no other influence than that of his own Mind. I am therefore under no difficulty of accepting the proposal, because I will know that it is not only out of friendship to me, but out of Justice to me, and without which I must be obliged to withdraw my mind from that line in which I can best serve the community, and apply myself to the thought of getting a livelihood, I HAVE THE HONEST PRIDE OF THINKING AND RANKING MYSELF AMONG THE FOUNDERS OF A NEW AND INDEPENDENT WORLD, and I should suffer exceedingly to be put out of that track." Etc., etc.

IN REFERENCE TO ROBERT MORRIS SPECULATING IN FLOUR.

- 913 PAINE, THOMAS. L. S. folio. Philadelphia, May 26, 1779. Signed also by Timothy Matlack, David Rittenhouse, Charles Willson Peale and J. B. Smith. $185.00

A letter from the Committee appointed at a General Town Meeting in the State House Yard, May 25, 1776. This meeting was called to examine into the Cargo of the Ship "Victorieux," then in port from Baltimore, loaded with flour. Mr. Morris and others so controlled the sale of the flour that it virtually cornered that article, and caused a great rise in the price, and Robert Morris was accused of speculating in it. This letter commands Mr. Morris to appear before them and explain his action in the matter.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO EXAMINE INTO THE CHARGES AGAINST MR.
MORRIS FOR SPECULATING IN FLOUR.

- 914 PAINE, THOMAS. L. S. 4 pages, folio. Philadelphia, July 21, 1779. To Robt. Morris. Signed also by Timothy Matlack, David Rittenhouse, Charles Willson Peale and J. B. Smith. To Robt. Morris, enclosing also a report, 6 pages, folio. Signed by Thos. Paine, Timothy Matlack, David Rittenhouse, Charles Willson Peale and J. B. Smith. $260.00

This letter is also in reference to the meeting mentioned in the preceding item, and says:

"We received your favour of June 26th. inclosed in your subsequent letter of July 7th. and likewise the same published in Mr. Dunlaps paper of the 8th and in Bradfords paper of the 14th instant, Our reason for not waiting on you again is assigned by you, partly on account of your indisposition, and partly by the publication itself, because it was appealing not from a report, but prior to a report, and it was not any part of our intention to have published any report without first presenting you with the whole. Enclosed is the report we shall make to the Town-meeting on Monday next, and which we shall publish in the papers of Saturday, and think it our duty to furnish you with a copy thereof for your perusal, animadversion or explanation." The report is included, and glancing over it we find that the Committee while not accusing Mr. Morris of any wrong doing, are of opinion that he aided and abetted in a monopoly, and through his actions, made it impossible for Congress to purchase the Ship's Cargo for use of the Continent, at a price commensurate with the terms, and insinuate that Mr. Morris should have waived personal profits in the cause of the Colonies, or otherwise should not have entered into a speculation of the kind, particularly on account of honors which had been bestowed on him by the Public. These should have induced him to be more patriotic.

PAINE ON THE TROUBLES WITH RHODE ISLAND.

- 915 PAINE, THOMAS. A. L. S. 2 pages, 4to. Second Street (Dec. 7, 1782). To Robt. Morris, with address. $180.00

In reference to the Congressional deputation being sent to Rhode Island, and offering suggestions how to appease that State.

"Understanding that Congress has appointed a deputation to Rhode Island, I transmit a thought on that subject

Considering how unwilling Men are to recede from fixt opinions, and that they feel something like disgrace to being convinced, the way to obtain something is to give something, And as it is necessary in the present Case, to cast about for every proposition, Suppose R. I. was to pass the law for two years, providing that at the expiration of one year, a deputation from the legislatures of all the States were to meet, to confer on any inconveniences that the present state of the several Acts might be found to be encumbered with, and adjust a plan suitable to the circumstances of the whole

The term of two years will carry our system beyond any present hope of the enemy. and the meeting or conference at the end of one year, may be a means of bringing about a more compact Union, and the States severally be eased in the mean time of every apprehension right or wrong."

- 916 PAINE, THOMAS. A. L. S. 4to. No date (circa 1780).
To Robt. Morris, with address. $75.00
Mentioning that he will publish an article on the King's speech in the papers tomorrow. Very interesting patriotic letter.

THE 1831 EDITION OF PATTIE'S PERSONAL NARRATIVE.

- 924 PATTIE, JAMES O. The Personal Narrative of James O. Pattie, of Kentucky, During an Expedition from St. Louis, through the Vast Regions between that Place and the Pacific Ocean, during Journeyings of Six Years; in which He . . . suffered unheard of Hardships and Dangers, had various Conflicts with the Indians, and were made Captives, in which Captivity his Father died; . . . Edited by Timothy Flint. PLATES. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut. Cincinnati: John H. Wood, 1831. $175.00

FINE COPY OF THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION.

The edition described below was generally considered the first and commanded almost equally high prices. Field only saw the 1833 edition, of which he says:

"The narrative of Pattie's expedition and captivity has more than the ordinary interest and value, which attaches to the stories of adventures. . . He encountered tribes of Indians who then saw a white man for the first time, and his narrative has the merit of being given in a candid, unexaggerated style which impresses us with his veracity. . ."

- 925 THE SAME. 8vo, original half sheep. Cincinnati, E. H. Flint, 1833. $90.00

The second edition, generally considered as the first until the discovery of copies dated 1831 as described above.

- 967 PENNSYLVANIA MAGAZINE; or American Monthly Museum. January, 1775, to July, 1776. With all the rare maps and plates. 2 vols., 8vo, full maroon, crushed morocco, gilt. Philadelphia: R. Aitken. 1775-6. $285.00

Exceedingly scarce. The finest copy known, being absolutely perfect, with some of the original blue-printed wrappers. Every one of the copies that have been sold at auction was more or less imperfect. Contains the portrait of Dr. Goldsmith by Poupard; Plans of the Harbour and Town of Boston; Plan of Boston and American Camp; Plan of General Gage's Line in Boston Neck; A Correct View of the Late Battle at Charlestown, June 17, 1775 (Bunker Hill), engraved by Aitken; Plan of the Town and Fortifications of Montreal; Plan of Quebec; Map of the Colony of Virginia; Map of North and South Carolina, and the last number contains the first appearance in magazine form of the Declaration of Independence. This is all that was published, the work ending with the July number, 1776.

EARLY MAPS, PLANS AND VIEWS OF PENNSYLVANIA AND PHILADELPHIA

- 968 A MAP OF SOME OF THE SOUTH AND EAST BOUNDS OF PENNSYLVANIA in America, being partly Inhabited. Sold by John Thornton at the Signe of England, Scotland and Ireland in the Minories, and by John Setler at his Shop in Popes head Alley in Cornhill. London: 1681. Size 22 x 17½ inches. $350.00

The rarest and most important map of Pennsylvania. It was published about the year 1682, as Philadelphia is not shown. Only a few copies of this geographical description of Pennsylvania are known. We can only trace one other copy.

- 969 THE EARLIEST MAP SHOWING PENNSYLVANIA. 1676-1685. Two maps from different states of the same plate, one before and one after the establishment of Pennsylvania. Both have exactly the same title, "A Map of Virginia, Maryland, New-Jersey, New-York, and New-England. By John Thornton at the Sundyall in the Minories and by Robert Greene at the Rose and Crowne in Dudge-rowe London." The title is in a cartouche in the top left-hand corner. The lettering is enclosed by an ornamental border somewhat in the shape of a shield, supported on the left side by an Indian woman carrying a pipe, and on the right by an Indian man holding a bow. On the top is a nondescript animal somewhat resembling a beaver, while on the front of the pedestal on which the shield rests is "A Scale of Thirty English Miles." In the earlier state there is no sign of Pennsylvania, but the whole country north of Virginia and west of the Delaware River is marked "MARYLAND." The real Delaware River is shown but not lettered, but the Schuylkill is marked "SKOOL KILL OR DILLEWAR R." New Jersey is shown with the partition line dividing it into East and West Jersey, so that this state of the map may have been engraved any time between the partition of the Jerseys in 1673/4 and the establishment of Pennsylvania. Probably 1676 would be about the correct date. But the great interest of this map centres in the second state of the plate, where we find the new Province of Pennsylvania introduced. The title being exactly the same as given above, it would be impossible to identify the two states from the title alone, and it was the mere chance of our having secured two copies from different sources and happening to compare them together that we discovered the difference. In the second state the upper part of Maryland is now lettered "PART OF PENSILVANIA" and the new boundary is shown by a red and yellow line. The lettering "Mary" (the first part of the word Maryland), which in the first state appeared just below the cartouche, is erased in the second state and re-engraved below the new boundary line. The Delaware river, which was not lettered in the first state, is now marked "Delaware River," although the old lettering on the Schuylkill "Skoole Kill or Dillewar R" remains. Philadelphia is marked, also Chester and one or two other places, but with the exception of these Pennsylvania alterations the two states appear to be exactly the same in all other parts. The date of this second state is probably about 1685. The map in either state is of excessive rarity and is not even mentioned by Lee Phillips in his exhaustive and valuable Essay on Virginia Cartography (1896), neither do we find it in A List of Maps of America in the Library of Congress, by the same author, published in 1901. The British Museum possesses a copy of the earlier state. The present copies are both in excellent condition. The size is 17¼ inches wide by 20¾ inches high, with good margins beyond. Price for the two $350.00

THE FINEST COLLECTION OF BOOKS AND MANUSCRIPTS OF EDGAR ALLEN POE EVER OFFERED FOR SALE

THE MOST FAMOUS OF ALL AMERICAN FIRST EDITIONS

- 1003 [POE, EDGAR ALLAN.] Tamerlane and Other Poems. By a Bostonian. [Edgar Allan Poe.] 12mo, unbound, in full levant solander case. Boston, Calvin F. S. Thomas, 1827. Price upon application.

THE MOST FAMOUS AMERICAN FIRST EDITION AND THE RAREST OF THEM ALL. Only three other copies are known.

AN UNKNOWN BOOK BY EDGAR ALLAN POE

- 1004 POE, EDGAR ALLAN. | English Notes, | Intended for | Very Extensive Circulation | By | Quarles Quickens, Esq. | Boston: | Published by the Daily Mail Office. | 1842. Small folio, half morocco; pp. 1-16. $1450.00

This was Poe's answer to Dickens' American Notes. When he wrote "The Raven," Poe signed it "Quarles," to the distraction of all his biographers, who were ignorant of the origin of the name. Only two other copies of the pamphlet are known.

The work is a biting satire and in part an able parody on Dicken's American book. The British character, customs and literary men are treated with a typically Poean vindictiveness.

Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, Edgar Allan Poe professor of English in the University of Virginia, regards the case made out for this work being by Poe a particularly strong one, and Miss Mary E. Phillips, author of The Life of J. Fennimore Cooper, who has just completed an exhaustive Life of Poe, refers to it as a very rare Poe item.

EDGAR ALLAN POE

ONE OF THE MOST PRECIOUS EDGAR ALLAN POE MANUSCRIPTS EVER OFFERED FOR SALE, CONTAINING SEVERAL FEATURES THAT AT ONCE ASSIGN IT TO A PLACE OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE AND VALUE.

Closely and beautifully written in ROMAN CHARACTER—in imitation of printing—a feature adopted by Poe in HIS EARLIER WRITINGS, which adds great interest to THE ABOVE MANUSCRIPT, AS IT IS SAID TO BE ONE OF THE FEW SPECIMENS OF ITS KIND EXTANT. EXHAUSTIVE SEARCH HAS FAILED TO REVEAL ANOTHER, EITHER IN A PUBLIC OR PRIVATE COLLECTION, OR SOLD BY AUCTION.

POE WRITES OF HIS CONTEMPORARIES
ONE OF THE FINEST POE MANUSCRIPTS EXTANT

- 1006 POE, EDGAR ALLAN. Original Autograph Manuscript. "Literary America. Some honest Opinions about our Autorial Merits and Demerits," 15 pages, 4to, 1848. Unbound in board case. $5500.00

This manuscript is part of "The Literati," it consists of thirteen 4to pages, with a manuscript title and half-title; all most beautifully written in a hand so fine that it resembles copperplate. The title-page is artistically printed by hand in Poe's well-known manner.

Poe evidently took the greatest care in the preparation of this manuscript which was written the year preceding his death.

A superb item from the C. B. Foote and Harry B. Smith collections.

ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH POEM BY EDGAR ALLAN
POE WITH A TOUCHING LETTER ABOUT HIS WIFE'S LAST ILLNESS

- 1007 POE, EDGAR ALLAN. Original Autograph Manuscript Poem, 1 page, 12mo, "To Mrs. M. L. S. (Marie Louise Shew), with a remarkable Autograph letter of the poet, written to Mrs. Shew the day before his wife's death, 1 page, 12mo, Fordham, Jan. 29, 1847. Also two autograph letters of Maria Clemm, 2 pages, 12mo, March 3, 1852, and March 29, 1860, and a portrait of Poe, and his visiting card, mounted to 4to and bound in red levant morocco, elaborately tooled, in slip case. $2800.00

The poem to "M. L. S." beginning "Of all who hail thy presence as the morning" is one of the most beautiful of Poe's lyrics.

The pathetic letter written to Mrs. Shew about his wife's last illness is as follows:

"Kindest dearest friend—My poor Virginia still lives, although failing fast and now suffering much pain. May God grant her life until she sees you and thanks you once again. Her bosom is full to overflowing—like my own—with a boundless inexpressible gratitude to you. Lest she may never see you more—she bids me say that she sends you her sweetest kiss of love and will die blessing you. But come, oh come to-morrow! Yes, I will be calm—everything you so nobly wish to see me," etc.

GEN'L PRESTON'S LETTER ON THE FALL OF PORT ROYAL

- 1015 PRESTON, JOHN S. Confederate Brig-General. A. L. S. 3 pages, small 4to. Columbia, S. C., Nov 9, 1861. To Genl. Beauregard. A fine letter relative to the fall of Port Royal. $55.00

"Before this reaches you, you will have heard of our terrible disaster at Port Royal. Our Batteries were failures, our troops shot badly. I trust they are safe, and that yet we may make a stand. I will not now leave the State, and am here trying to aid the Governor, by suggestion and advice. In the communication I have this day addressed to the President, giving a full account of our condition and wants I have taken the liberty with your name. It is due to you that I should inform you of it. I cannot be restrained by the Army Regulations or Courtesies when my country and state is in such imminent peril. My commission is not worth a peg to me, except to enable me to serve the holy cause. If I risk military censure in a dutifull effort, the fact of the risk enhances my self-approval. My use of your name is in these words, 'Dare I venture to suggest that Genl. Beauregard was four months engaged in the defences of Charleston, and is personally familiar with every inch of the ground and its relative bearing.' I do not mean to interfere with your views or those of the President. In both my confidence is perfect. But I do mean to leave no stone unturned in my endeavors to serve the country, and for this, and this consideration alone I made the suggestion in the terms I have copied. Things are looking gloomy. My abiding trust is in the God of Right, and in the brain, the heart, and the strong right arms of our Soldiery."

- 1028 PURRY, JEAN PIERRE. Memoire Présenté à Sa Gr. Mylord Duc de Newcastle . . . sur l'ETAT PRESENT DE LA CAROLINE et sur les moyens dé l'améliorer. 4to paper covers, in half levant slip case. Imprimé à Londres, Chez A. Bowyer, 1724. $850.00

THE BRINLEY COPY, THE ONLY ONE KNOWN.

Accompanied by the privately printed translation by Charles C. Jones, Augusta, Ga., 1880. In the preface he says he has only seen this copy. Purry's State of Carolina must be regarded as one of the most important narratives of the colonization period.

BOOKS ON THE QUAKERS

- 1029 QUAKERS. A Battle-Door for Teachers and Professors to learn Singular and Plural; You to many, and Thou to One: Singular One, Thou; Plural Many, You. Wherein is shewed forth by Grammar, or Scripture Examples, how several Nations and People have made a distinction between Singular and Plural . . . George Fox, John Stubs, Benjamin Furley. Folio, half morocco, uncut. London, printed for Robert Wilson, and are to be sold at his shop at the Signe of the Black-Spread-Eagle and Wind-mil in Martins-le-Grande, 1660. $150.00

First edition of this most remarkable publication. A very fine and perfect copy. There are probably few books in our own (or any other) language more singular in their character, and more earnest in their aim than Fox's Battle-Door. In a perfect and fine state it is of the greatest rarity, indeed, copies seldom occur perfect or imperfect. The Work may be regarded as not merely a Quaker Primer, but as the earliest protest—and a strangely worded one—against the improper use of the plural number in addressing individuals.

- 1030 QUAKERS. The Painted-Harlot both Stript and Whipt, Or the Second Part of Naked Truth, Containing A further Discovery of the Mischief of Imposition, among the People called Quakers . . . 4to, half morocco. London, 1683. $25.00

- 1031 QUAKERS. Battering Rams against New Rome: containing a Farther Discovery of The Grand Hypocrisie of the Leaders and Teachers of the People called Quakers . . . By Francis Bugg. 4to, half morocco. London, 1690/1. $25.00

- 1032 QUAKERS. One Blow More at New Rome. Being an Appendix to Battering Rams, &c. By Francis Bugg. 4to, half morocco. London, 1691. $15.00

- 1033 QUAKERS. New Rome Arraigned, and out of her own Mouth condemned. Containing A Farther Discovery of the Dangerous Errors, and Pernicious Principles of the Leaders and Teachers of the Foxonian Quakers . . . by Francis Bugg. 4to, half morocco. London, 1694. $15.00

- 1034 QUAKERS. A Second Summons to the City Abel, 2 Sam. 20. To deliver up Sheba, the Son of Bichri, that Man of Bebial; by Way of Metaphor, Alluding to the Quakers and George Whitehead. By Francis Bugg. 4to, half morocco. London, 1695. $15.00

- 1035 QUAKERS. A Collection of Some Writings of the most noted of the People called Quakers, in their Times . . . 12mo, half morocco. Philadelphia: 1767. $7.50

- 1036 QUINCY, JOSIAH. Observations on the Act of Parliament commonly called the BOSTON PORT BILL; with Thoughts on Civil Society and Standing Armies. 8vo unbound. Philadelphia, John Sparhawk, 1774. $16.00

ON THE FLORA OF LOUISIANA

- 1037 RAFINESQUE, C. S. Florula Ludoviciana; or, A Flora of the State of Louisiana. 12mo, sewed. New York: C. Wiley, 1817. $37.50

Very scarce. A really important book and not like some of the things that Rafinesque had the effrontery to offer to the American public! These little things by "C. S." are attractive to the collector because they exist in unknown number (the Rafinesque bibliography is appalling!) and something always turns up to astonish the most astute bibliophile! Owing to his literary fecundity and to the avidity of collectors of his works, we booksellers have lived off Rafinesque for years. Long may he wave!

- 1038 RAFINESQUE, C. S. Ancient History or Annals of Kentucky; with a Survey of the Ancient Monuments of North America, and a Tabular View of the Principal Languages and Primitive Nations of the whole Earth. 8vo, half morocco. Frankfort, in Kentucky, 1824. $16.50

An important contribution to the early history of Kentucky by the omniverous and obstreperous Rafinesque. Scarce but not rare.

- 1039 RAFINESQUE, C. S. A Life of Travels and Researches, containing his Travels in North America etc from 1802 to 1830. 12mo, sewed. Philadelphia: Printed for the Author, 1836. $35.00

One of the rarest of the Rafinesque pamphlets, detailing his curious wanderings in North America.

- 1040 RAILROADS. "Rail Road Depot at Philadelphia." Lithograph showing the depot of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railway about 1835 with the locomotive and carriage in front of the building. Drawn and Engraved by G. E. Blake (Phila., 1835). Quarto. $85.00

Extremely rare and interesting. It is the first depot of the Reading Railroad.

- 1041 RALEGH, SIR WALTER. The Life of Sir Walter Raleigh. Based on Contemporary Documents Preserved in the Rolls House, the Privy Council Office Hatfield House . . . Together with his letters now first collected. By Edward Edwards. PORTRAIT AND FACSIMILE MS. 2 vols, 8vo, original cloth, uncut. London, 1868. $7.50

- 1042 RANDOLPH, EDMUND. A Vindication of Mr. Randolph's Resignation. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. Philadelphia, 1795. $3.50

Scarce.

- 1043 RANDOLPH, JOHN. Sawyer, Lemuel. A biography of John Randolph of Roanoke, with a selection from his speeches . . . 8vo, half morocco. New York: Robinson, 1844. $8.50

Very rare.

- 1044 RANDOLPH, JOHN, of Roanoke and other sketches of character, including William Wirt . . . By F. W. Thomas . . . 8vo, original cloth. Philadelphia: 1853. $2.00

- 1045 RAYMOND, DANIEL. The Missouri Question. 8vo, half morocco. Baltimore: 1819. $8.50

One of the earliest discussions of the Missouri question and now very rare.

GENERAL JOSEPH REED ON MEETING THE BRITISH COMMISSIONERS

- 1046 REED, JOSEPH. Brig. General in the Revolution. Aide and Military Secretary to Washington. Distinguished at Trenton, Princeton, Brandywine, Germantown, &c. In reply to the offer of the British peace commissioners, he said: "I am not worth purchasing; but such as I am, the King of Great Britain is not rich enough to do it." A. L. S. 4 pages, folio. Head Quarters, New York, July 18, 1776. To Robt. Morris. Together with a copy, in his hand, of a letter received from a "Gentleman of Character," dated London, May 3, 1776. 3 pages, folio. $190.00

A highly important historical letter in reference to meeting the British commissioners with a view to reconciliation, and giving his views on the subject. The copy of the letter he encloses is one written to him on the same subject, begging him to use his influence to bring about an accommodation.

- 1047 REID, ARTHUR. Reminiscences of the Revolution, or Le Loup's Bloody Trail from Salem to Fort Edward. 8vo, original paper covers. Utica, 1859. $6.00

A very attractive and scarce pamphlet.

- 1048 REVOLUTION. BLOCKADE OF BOSTON. "Tuesday last Capt. Shayler arrived at Boston from London, with the following interesting Intelligence." Relative to the proposed BLOCKADE OF THE HARBOR OF BOSTON. Folio Broadside, printed in three columns. [Boston, 1774]. $160.00

Unknown to Evans and other bibliographers. A printed Broadside of the greatest Historical Interest. It was by this document that the inhabitants received the first news of the passage of the Infamous Act "to discontinue the landing, discharging or shipping of Goods, Wares and Merchandize at the Town and within the Harbour of Boston." A superb Revolutionary item.

- 1049 REVOLUTION. The original Printed Letter dated from Boston, May 12, 1774, relative to the ATTEMPT MADE BY THE BRITISH TO BLOCK UP THE HARBOR OF BOSTON and the means taken by the inhabitants to combat it. Small folio, uncut, enclosed in a half levant morocco slip-case. [Boston, 1774]. $165.00

Overwhelmingly rare! Not mentioned by Evans and probably unique. This copy is signed by William Cooper, Town Clerk, and is addressed in ink to the Town Clerk of Northampton, by whom doubtless it was presented. "This letter," according to the document, "was written in presence of and with the concurrence of the Committees of Correspondence for the Towns of Dorchester, Roxbury, Newton, Lexington, Brooklyn, Cambridge, Charlestown and Lynn."

- 1050 REVOLUTION. Strictures on a Pamphlet entitled, A "Friendly Address to all Reasonable Americans, on the Subject of our Political Confusions." Addressed to the People of America. 8vo, unbound, uncut. Philadelphia, Printed and Sold by William and Thomas Bradford, 1774. $18.00

CONGRESS ASKS HELP OF THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND

- 1051 REVOLUTION. To the People of Ireland. From the Delegates appointed by the United Colonies . . . in General Congress at Philadelphia, the 10th of May, 1775. 8vo, unbound, uncut, in half morocco slip case. [Phila., 1775]. $55.00

Of the highest degree of rarity. We know of but two other copies. Congress made two appeals to the English for help—one to the Inhabitants of Quebec and the other to the People of Ireland. Strange to say, the Irish did not respond to the invitation as some of them did to Germany's appeal in 1915!

- 1052 REVOLUTION. Broadside. Declaration of War against English Shipping, Public and Private, in Congress, March 23, 1776. Signed by Charles Thomson, Secretary. Folio. Philadelphia: John Dunlap, 1776. $140.00

An extremely rare broadside PARTICULARLY INTERESTING AT THE PRESENT TIME.

- 1053 REVOLUTION. MILITARY POCKET ATLAS, being an Approved Collection of Correct Maps, both General and Particular, of the British Colonies, Especially those which are now, or probably may be, the Theatre of War. Taken principally from the actual surveys, etc., of De Brahm, Romans, Cook, etc. 8vo, original boards. London: Sayer (1776). $25.00

This Atlas consists of six large folding maps of North America, the West Indies, the Northern Colonies, the Middle Colonies, the Southern Colonies and Lake Champlain. This is the rare collection known as the "Holster Atlas," owing to its being made for the use of the mounted British officers.

ONE OF THE RARE REVOLUTIONARY TRACTS

- 1054 REVOLUTION. THE ALARM, or An Address to the People of Pennsylvania, on the Late RESOLVE OF CONGRESS for Totally Suppressing all Power and Authority derived from the Crown of Great Britain. . .

Quarto, pp. 4. [Philadelphia: Printed by Henry Miller, 1776]. $160.00

This important address was distributed on Sunday, May 19, 1776. No printer's name was given, as it would have been treason to be caught distributing it. It was published just before the Declaration of Independence. Evans fails to locate a copy in any library and there is no record of its sale at auction.

- 1055 REVOLUTION. The Tears of the Foot Guards upon their Departure for America. Written by an Ensign of the Army. 4to, half morocco. London: Printed for G. Kearsley, in Fleet-Street, 1776. $25.00

Contains a satirical dedication "to the most truly virtuous and Beautiful Lady H"—(arrington).

MASSACHUSETTS VOTES TO INCREASE THE REVOLUTIONARY ARMY

- 1056 REVOLUTION. An Act for Providing a Reinforcement to the American Army. In the year of Our Lord, 1776. Folio, pp. 4, uncut, in a maroon morocco slip case. Boston: Printed by Edes and Gill, opposite the Court-House [1776]. $150.00

Of the greatest historical interest. This act was passed by the Council and House of Representatives in General Court of Massachusetts.

- 1057 REVOLUTION. Bill for The Provisional Establishment and Regulation of Trade and Intercourse between the Subjects of Great Britain and those of the United States of North America. Folio, half calf, uncut. [London,] 1778. $40.00

- 1058 REVOLUTION. Memoire justificatif de la Conduite de la Grande Bretagne, en arretant les Navires Etrangers et les Munitions de Guerre destinees aux Insurgens de l'Amerique. (By Mulgrave?) Quarto, original half boards. Londres: T. Harrison, 1779. $27.50

One of the most valuable tracts on the subject of supplying the American Colonies with the sinews of war during the Revolution. It is of great rarity.

ONE OF THE RAREST REVOLUTIONARY SATIRES

- 1059 REVOLUTION. The School for Scandal. A Comedy . . . 8vo, half morocco. Philadelphia: Re-Printed by Thomas Bradford, 1779. $175.00

An English Political adaptation of Sheridan's Play in which General Washington is referred to as General Washball. Excessively rare.

AN UNCUT COPY OF THE IMPARTIAL HISTORY

- 1060 REVOLUTION. An Impartial History of the War in America, between Great Britain and Her Colonies, from its Commencement to the End of the Year 1779. Illustrated with a variety of beautiful copper-plates, representing real and animated likenesses of those celebrated Generals who have distinguished themselves in the important Contest. 8vo, brown levant morocco extra, uncut, by Pratt. Carlisle: J. Milliken, 1780. $175.00

A large and beautiful copy in uncut state, with brilliant impressions of the plates. The French and Chubbuck copy brought $200.00 in 1904.

- 1061 REVOLUTION. Emma Corbett, or, the Miseries of Civil War. Founded on some recent Circumstances which happened in America. FRONTISPIECE. 3 vols., 12mo, calf. Printed for Pratt and Clinch, Bath; and R. Baldwin, London, 1780. $12.00

Very rare.

The frontispiece is engraved by Thomas Burke after Angelica Kauffman.

Pittsburgh and Harrisburg: 1846. $12.50

RUSH ON CONGRESS RETURNING TO PHILADELPHIA

- 1098 RUSH, DR. BENJAMIN. Signer of the Declaration of Independence. A. L. S. 3 pages, 4to. Baltimore, Feb. 8, 1777. To Robert Morris, with address. $125.00

On the subject of Congress returning to Philadelphia, and mentions Genl. Washington.

"I have the pleasure of informing you that your letter to Congress of the 4th instant produced a Motion this day for adjoining to Philadelphia. After some debate it was resolved by a majority of one State only not to put the Question. One State was accidentally unrepresented for a few minutes or it would have been carried in the Affirmative. The principal design of this letter is to request that you would urge the necessity of our returning to Philad^a in your next letter. By our Absence from Philad^a we not only depreciate the money there, but we likewise depreciate it by our residence here. The scarcity of Artificers, the want of sufficient number of boarding houses, the constant accession of Strangers who have business with the Congress and who create a fluctuation in the Quantity of provisions brought into the town have rendered the price of living, and transacting business of all kinds three times as high in this place as it is in many parts of the Continent, and Nearly twice as high as in Philadelphia. But there are other considerations which ought to influence us. Our return will have the same effect upon our politicks that General Washington's late success had upon our Arms. Its operation perhaps may not be confined to the Continent. It may serve our cause even in the Court of France, etc., etc."

- 1099 SAGE, RUFUS B. Wild scenes in Kansas and Nebraska, Rocky Mountains, Oregon, California, New Mexico, Texas and the Grand Prairies. 12mo, cloth. Phila. 1855. $5.00

- 1100 ST. CLAIR, ARTHUR. A Narrative of the manner in which the Campaign against the INDIANS in the Year 1791 was conducted under the Command of Major General St. Clair. 8vo, original blue boards, entirely uncut. Philadelphia: Jane Aitken, 1812. $18.50

Fine copy of General St. Clair's defence of his disastrous campaign against the Indians. It is said that when General Washington heard of the "surprise" attack made by the Indians and of which he had warned St. Clair, he uttered a few choice remarks which historians term "unusual," but the exact nature of which can never be accurately learned. The "oaths" or "curses" of General Washington are so rare that they are esteemed like jewels, the smallest imprecation being valued above rubies. His language to General Lee after the Battle of Monmouth is always recorded most religiously by historians, but an accurate rendering is impossible, phonographs being then unknown. Some chroniclers state the words used by General Washington on that occasion were quite mild, dubbing them "picturesque curses" or "gentlemanly oaths," but other students, with an unflinching regard for the truth, give the very phrases, which we fear, if repeated by us, would stain the fair pages of this catalogue. If Washington had been addicted to cursing, of course all this investigation would have been fruitless, but as he always abstained from it (except on a very proper occasion!) his blusterings are faithfully revered and become part of the history of our country. It is the reward of virtue!

- 1101 ST. JOHN, JOHN R. A True Description of the Lake Superior Country; its Rivers, Coasts, Bays, Harbours, Islands, and Commerce. With Bayfield's Chart. Also a Minute Account of the Copper Mines and Working Companies. 12mo, cloth. New York, 1846. $35.00

Good clean copy of a very rare book.

COL. ALEXANDER SCAMMELL'S ACCOUNT OF THE
EVACUATION OF TICONDEROGA AND THE BAT-TLE OF THE 19TH OF SEPTEMBER, 1777.

- 1108 SCAMMELL, ALEXANDER. Col. in the Revolution. A. L. S., 3 pp. folio, to his brother, Dr. Samuel Scammell. With Address. $350.00

A long and closely written letter, giving a very interesting account of the EVACUATION OF TICONDEROGA and the subsequent events. The writer at this period was Colonel of a New Hampshire regiment. This letter is of the highest historical value, giving an UNPUBLISHED Account of one of the great events in American History.

- 1109 SCANTLEBURY, THOMAS. Wanderings in Minnesota during the Indian Troubles of 1862. 8vo, original yellow printed wrappers. Chicago: F. Calhoun, 1867. $87.50

This is one of the rarest narratives of Indian Warfare in the West. It consists of the Diary of Thomas Scantlebury and is of such historical importance that it would pay to publish a new edition of it. It was PRIVATELY PRINTED, according to the preface, "solely for a few personal friends and relatives of the author." It is such a desirable little narrative of travel in America that we hate to part with it!

- 1110 SCHOOLCRAFT, HENRY R. A View of the Lead Mines of Missouri. Including some Observations of the Mineralogy, Geology, Geography, Antiquities, Soil, Climate, Population and Productions of Missouri and Arkansas, and other Sections of the Western Country . . . A superb copy of one of the rarest American books. It is perfectly fresh and crisp, with the leaf preceding the title that is seldom found.

- 1118 SCOTT, JAMES L. A Journal of a Missionary Tour through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. 12mo, original cloth. Providence, Published by the Author, 1843. $65.00

Very rare and extremely important. We can locate only three copies in American libraries.

AN EARLY ACCOUNT OF INDIANA

- 1119 SCOTT, JOHN. The Indiana Gazetteer, or Topographical Dictionary, containing a Description of the Several Counties, Towns, Villages . . . in the State of INDIANA. 12mo, unbound, in half blue morocco, slip case. Centreville, 1826. $85.00

This is one of the rarest American Gazetteers, as only a few copies have survived. It is very important, containing much valuable information relating to Indiana. We can trace only one other copy.

- 1120 SCOTT, WILLIAM. O Tempora O Mores! or The Best New Year's Gift for a Prime Minister, Being the Substance of two Sermons . . . Dedicated to Lord North. 8vo, unbound, uncut. Philadelphia: Reprinted and Sold by Benjamin Towne, 1774. $15.00
- 1121 [SEABURY, SAMUEL] The Congress Canvassed; or, an Examination into the Conduct of the Delegates, at their Grand Convention, Held at Philadelphia, Sept. 1, 1774. . . . By A. W. Farmer. 8vo, unbound. Printed in the Year, M, DCC, LXXIV. [N. Y. 1774]. $27.50
- 1122 [SEABURY, SAMUEL]. Free Thoughts, on The Proceedings of the Continental Congress, Held at Philadelphia Sept. 5, 1774: Wherein their Errors are exhibited . . . By a Farmer. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. Printed in the year MDCC LXXIV. [1774]. $27.50
 Fine uncut copy.
 The various pamphlets signed "A. W. FARMER," i. e. "A Westchester Farmer," have been ascribed to Samuel Seabury and to Isaac Wilkins. Evans favors Seabury and Justin Winsor thinks they may have been produced jointly. Alexander Hamilton replied to the above two tracts with "A Full Vindication," 1774 (q. v.), which was answered in turn by the pamphlet below.
- 1123 [SEABURY, SAMUEL]. A View of the Controversy between Great-Britain and her Colonies: including A Mode of Determining their present Disputes, finally and effectually; and of preventing all future Contentions . . . By A. W. Farmer. 8vo, unbound. New-York, James Rivington, 1774. $25.00
- 1124 [SEABURY, SAMUEL]. An Alarm to the Legislature of the Province of New York, occasioned by the present Political Disturbances in North America. 8vo, unbound. New York, James Rivington, 1775. $27.50
 Contains at end a two-page list of "Pamphlets, relating to the present Controversy between Great-Britain and the Colonies to be had of James Rivington."

The Report of the Select Committee, to whom was referred the Information communicated to the House of Representatives, charging Benjamin Sebastian, one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals of KENTUCKY, with having received a Pension from the Spanish Government. 8vo, unbound. Frandfort, Ky., 1806. $9.00

THE FIRST EDITION OF A RARE INDIAN CAPTIVITY

- 1127 SEAVER, JAMES E. A Narrative of the Life of Mrs. Mary Jemison, who was taken by the Indians, in the year 1755, etc. 12mo, original half leather binding, in a blue morocco slip case. Canandaigua, J. D. Bemis, 1824.

$187.50

The first edition and for years shamelessly scarce, for, with great effrontery, it has evaded the attempts of collectors and bibliographers to capture it. For decades it remained a matter of tradition, but recently this and "another" turned up for the delectation of the bibliophile. The "other copy" brought at auction on March 1, 1917, $205.00 and its condition was not as fine as the one here offered.

- 1128 SELKIRK, EARL OF. Statement Respecting the Earl of Selkirk's Settlement upon the Red River, in North America; its Destruction in 1815 and 1816; and the Massacre of Governor Semple and his Party. With Observations upon a recent publication, entitled "A Narrative of Occurrences in the Indian Countries." WITH MAP. 8vo, original boards, paper label, uncut and unopened. London: John Murray, 1817.

$14.00

- 1128a SEMINOLE WAR. An Authentic Narrative of the Seminole War and of the Miraculous Escape of Mrs. Mary Godfrey and her four female Children. VIGNETTE. 8vo, unbound, uncut. New York, D. F. Blanchard, 1836. $35.00

This interesting chap book history of the Second Seminole War is very curious, the crude vignette on the title represents a hideous negro about to murder Mrs. Godfrey and her four female children, including a very mature infant in arms.

- 1129 SENECA. SENECA'S Morals. By Way of Abstract. To which is added, A Discourse, under the Title of an After Thought. By Sir Roger L'Estrange. 12mo, original sheep. New York: Published by Evert Duyckinck, J. J. Harper, Printers. 1817.

$15.00

The first book printed by Harper Bros.

- 1130 SERIOUS FACTS, opposed to "Serious Considerations": or, the Voice of Warning to RELIGIOUS REPUBLICANS. 8vo, half morocco, uncut. N. p., 1800. $7.50

In support of the election of Thomas Jefferson to the Presidency. The term "religious republicans" is worth the price asked. The political party with that appellation seems to be extinct! The phrase, however, is too delicious to be lost. If not sold, the pamphlet will be presented to a public institution to be preserved for posterity.

The original etchings, made before the finished aquatints. UNIQUE IN THIS STATE. The view of Boston is worth the price asked for the entire set.

IF YOU BELIEVE WHAT SHERMAN SAID ABOUT
WAR, READ THIS REMARKABLE LETTER AND REPLY

- 1137 SHERMAN, WM. TECUMSEH. Major-General. A. L. S. 3 pages, 4to. In the Field, Military Division of the Mississippi, Feb. 22, 1865. To Genl. Wade Hampton, with an Official Copy of Genl. Wade Hampton's Reply. $365.00

In reference to the Confederates killing his foragers and his intended reprisal.

"It is officially reported to me that our foraging parties are murdered after Capture and labelled 'Death to all Foragers.' An instance of a Lieut. and seven men near Chesterville, and another of twenty 'near a Ravine 80 rods from the main Road' about three miles from Feasterville. I have ordered a similar number of prisoners in our hands to be disposed of in a like manner.

I hold about 1000 prisoners captured in various ways, and can stand it as long as you, but I hardly think these murders are committed with your Knowledge, and would suggest that you give notice to the People at large that every life taken by them simply results in the death of one of your Confederates. Of course, you cannot question my right to forage in the Country. It is a known right as old as History. The manner of exercising it varies with Circumstances, and if the Civil Authorities will supply my Requisitions I will forbid all foraging. But I find no Civil Authorities who can respond to Calls for forage or provisions, and therefore must collect directly of the People. I have no doubt this is the occasion of much misbehaviour on the part of our men, but I cannot permit an Enemy to judge or punish with wholesale murder.

Personally I regret the bitter feelings engendered by the war, but they were to be expected, and I simply allege that those who struck the first blow, and made war inevitable, ought not in fairness to reproach us for the natural consequences. I merely assert our War Rights to Forage, and my resolve to protect my foragers to the extent of Life for Life."

In the reply (here included) of Genl. Wade Hampton, to the above letter, he says: "I beg to assure you, that for every soldier of mine 'murdered' by you, I shall have executed at once two of yours, giving in all cases preference to any officers who may be in my hands." He then accuses Sherman's foragers of ravishing the women of the country, plundering the residents, and other outrages, but denies all knowledge of any of the foragers being put to death.

- 1138 SHIPLEY, JONATHAN, Bishop of St. Asaph. A Sermon preached before the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts . . . on Friday, February 19, 1773. 8vo, unbound. Philadelphia, Robert Bell, 1723. $5.00

PORTRAIT OF CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY, BY
EMANUEL LEUTZE

- 1187a TANEY, ROGER BROOKE. Life size three-quarter length portrait, in oil, of Roger Brooke Taney, Chief Justice of the United States, by Emanuel Leutze, the celebrated American artist. $3500.00

Chief Justice Taney was born in Calvert county, Maryland, March 17, 1777, and died in Washington, October 12, 1864. He was appointed Chief Justice of the United States by Andrew Jackson in December 26, 1835, and retained the position until his death. It was he who rendered the decision in the famous Dred-Scott case.

The artist, Emanuel Leutze, died in Washington, July 18, 1868. He painted, besides many portraits, a number of important historical scenes relating to America. His celebrated picture, "Washington Crossing the Delaware," is in the Metropolitan Museum, New York. THIS PORTRAIT IS WELL KNOWN AND ENJOYS THE REPUTATION OF BEING THE FINEST PORTRAIT OF JUDGE TANEY EXTANT. It was painted for the family of James M. Campbell, the noted lawyer, of Baltimore, who married Judge Taney's daughter, and was purchased at the sale of the effects of Mr. Campbell by his relative, the late Col. Frank M. Etting. An Invitation

ISITORS to Philadelphia are invited to view the many objects of ancient and modern art on exhibition in our Galleries.

The Print Department contains old and modern mezzotints, early views, prints in colour, etchings by Rembrandt, Meryon, Whistler, French line engravings, and the work of the contemporary masters. They are in extraordinary state, and include some of the finest specimens of the engraver's art.

In our collections are paintings by the old and modern masters, specimens of old enamels and ivories, antique furniture of the best periods, as well as faithful reproductions of old pieces, and some fine examples of early porcelains and potteries.

There are also pieces of historic, as well as artistic interest, gathered from the great collections of Europe and America.

Every one interested is cordially invited to view them at leisure. Correspondence solicited.

We are always glad to buy, as well as sell, Rare Books, Early Foreign and American Paintings, and Objects of Art.
